DEDICATION

The Miami Dolphins dedicate their 1985 Media Guide to Bob Kuechenberg, who retired this past May following a 15-year association as a Dolphin player. "Kooch," considered one of the greatest offensive linemen in the history of the National Football League, played in more games than any other player in Dolphin annals (190 regular season, 209 including playoffs). The last remaining active player from Miami's 1972 undefeated "Greatest Team Ever," Kuechenberg was selected to play in six Pro Bowls and was twice a First Team All-NFL pick. A durable and tough performer, he compiled three separate streaks of 40 or more consecutive starts. His finest moment as a player probably occurred on January 13, 1974 when his total domination of Minnesota All-Pro Alan Page helped Miami to a 24-7 win over the Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Kuechenberg's playing career will stand as a lesson in determination, guts, and courage. Released by two different NFL teams in 1969, he was relegated to playing semi-pro football in Chicago, but did not quit. Several serious injuries during his career did not keep him from the Miami lineup. He will always be considered as a member of the Miami Dolphin family.

The Miami Dolphins also would like to extend their gratitude to Jimmy Cefalo who retired last May to pursue a television career. A swift receiver known for his sharp routes and sure hands, Cefalo will always be remembered by Dol-fans for his 76-yard touchdown reception against Washington in Super Bowl XVII.

JOE ROBBIE

PRESIDENT

Joe Robbie arrived on the Miami scene in 1965 when he was almost 50 years old. He had already had significant careers in politics, government administration, public service, and trial law behind him.

In South Florida, an area well accustomed to "newcomers" and promoters of every shade of credibility and character, he was but one of thousands — all of whom would be sorted out according to their abilities and "real value" with the passage of time.

During those 20 years, Robbie has:

- Become sole owner of the Miami Dolphins.
- Directed the franchise which has recorded the best won-lost record in the National Football League since the 1970 merger.
- Contributed more than $2-million to various charities and educational projects as well as his time and talent to a wide range of community services.
- Initiated a unique, free-enterprise stadium construction plan designed to build the $90-million Dolphin Stadium which will become a focal point for major-league sports in South Florida.

The struggle continues. The challenge moves to new goals.

In this 20th anniversary year of the Dolphins, Robbie's efforts are consumed not only in directing the franchise to what could be its sixth Super Bowl appearance, but also in the step-by-step solution of problems inherent in the financing and construction of such a major project.

In spite of the "expert" opinions of most outside of the Dolphin organization who had ever "put a pencil" to the financial numbers involved in privately financing the luxury stadium, Robbie ordered his organization into an all-out campaign.

He announced the stadium marketing plan at the 1984 Dolphins' Awards Banquet and one year later was able to report that Dolphin fans and supporters had placed almost $8-million on security deposit and had signed ten-year luxury-seating leases that would translate into an additional $80-million over the decade. With more luxury seating still to be leased, the financing was assured.

It was a stunning performance, and Robbie promptly gave credit to those fans and supporters who had put their money down and signed on the dotted line. But, in every real sense, those fans and supporters were placing their faith in the credibility and reputation of the Dolphins in general — and Joe Robbie in particular.

One luxury club seat lessee summed up the feelings of many, "... when Joe Robbie took the bull by the horns, I wanted to be sure I was right there backing him."

Robbie was born July 7, 1916 in Sisseton, South Dakota. While financially poor, the Robbie family was wealthy in character and self esteem; they believed in and "lived" the old verities of hard work, honesty and self initiative. They were born survivors who had taken all that the Great Depression and dust bowl could deliver, and emerged the stronger for it. They had every human value of importance, and the lack of money only created part of the struggle and challenge which Robbie came to cherish as a gift.

When he was 15, he was earning money as a by-lined sports editor on the local Sisseton Journal-Press. In 1934, he interrupted his high school senior year to enroll in the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) and worked in the South Dakota Black Hills area in such Western-sounding name places as Horse Creek and Lightning Creek, which were near Ft. Meade where the Fourth Cavalry still rode.

He made a solemn promise to his mother that he would return to high school after CCC camp — and he did. He graduated in 1935 and was the only student from that depression-year graduating class that went on to college.

Robbie entered Northern State Teachers College in Aberdeen, S.D. He received a little financial aid from a debate scholarship, but he mostly earned his own way.

As he himself put it, "I was a hasher and haberdasher; a college publicity director and a radio announcer; an adult education teacher and a law librarian. In between, I handled odd jobs!"

In college, he was as outspoken and unintimidated as he is today. According to faculty and students who knew him then, he was always in the middle of what was "happening," and probably had started it. A story that still makes the rounds at Northern State tells of a harried dean of students who stopped a student in the hallway and told him, "Go find Joe Robbie, and whatever he's doing, tell him to stop it!" Other students who had gotten to know Robbie during his first year at the school told Robbie's cousin, "Joe will either wind up hanged, or President!"

If he had become President, he would have been most like Harry Truman; if he had become a general, most like George Patton.

However, it is also a mark of his college days that he had the distinction of being elected student body president at both Northern State College and the University of South Dakota. It is also true that both schools have subsequently had him back to receive doctorate degrees.

On the day following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, Robbie volunteered as an enlisted man in the United States Navy. He rose through the ranks to become an officer and participated in five South Pacific theatre invasions and received the Bronze Star.

Following the war, Robbie returned and graduated from the University of South Dakota Law School in 1946, and started his law practice in Mitchell, South Dakota. In two years, he had been elected a representative to the South Dakota State Legislature, had served as State Democratic Chairman, and was the candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket.

In 1951, his friend Hubert H. Humphrey encouraged Robbie to bring his wife Elizabeth and their young family to Minneapolis. He was Regional Director of the Office of Price Stabilization for four states from 1952-53 and subsequently became one of the best known and successful trial lawyers in the region. Without fanfare, a share of his practice was always voluntarily given to defend destitute defendants charged with serious crimes.

A fellow lawyer described Robbie as, "... unrelenting in cross examination and eloquent in summation."

Robbie combined politics with his law practice, and almost defeated nationally-known and veteran Congressman Dr. Walter Judd in 1958 — even though Judd represented the solidly-Republican Fifth Congressional District.

Robbie gained national recognition among legislators as Chairman of the Minnesota Municipal Commission over which he presided from 1959-65. He had drafted the law passed by the Minnesota Legislature that created the commission, and that legislation has become a model adopted by other states.

While Robbie had had a lifetime of interest and involvement in sports from the time he was a teen-aged sports editor, nothing in his career up to the age of 50 was any harbinger of what he would create for himself and South Florida during the next 20 years.

With only a successful trial lawyer's income and a family of 11 children to support, there was no fortune at hand to even think of buying a major sports franchise. In 1965, when Robbie contacted AFL Commissioner Joe Foss, a former classmate at the University of South Dakota, about a client's interest in a Philadelphia expansion franchise, Foss rejected Philadelphia but suggested Miami.

Robbie's client was not interested; Robbie was.

He did the leg work and the research to prepare the franchise application, and gained a powerful ally in then-Miami Mayor Robert King High, who had received a total endorsement of Robbie from then-Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

After Robbie recruited show business personality Danny Thomas to be his co-applicant, the AFL awarded them the franchise on August 6, 1965. With the franchise came a $7.5-million fee.

Robbie took over the operation of the franchise as Managing General Partner and remained undaunted throughout the early years of disappointment over a four-year losing record (15-39-2) and an average attendance that did not exceed 29,000 in any season.

Danny Thomas had sold out his interest in the Dolphins in 1968 and later, when one member of the limited partners had secretly negotiated to move the Dolphins to Seattle, Robbie quickly recruited five Miami investors to buy out the dissident partner's share and keep the Dolphins in Miami.

During those years, Robbie constantly told the media the Dolphins were in Miami "to stay" and he promised they would be a "... championship team." The skeptics outnumbered the believers. However, those in the midwest who had known Robbie could have told doubting South Floridians at the time that Robbie was, "... as good as his word."

Robbie took decisive action; he relieved the Dolphins' head coach, George Wilson, and signed the Baltimore Colts' head coach, Don Shula, in 1970.

With the players that Robbie and personnel director Joe Thomas had acquired during those first four years, Shula turned the Dolphins from 3-10-1 losers in 1969 into 10-4 playoff qualifiers in 1970.

Since that time, the Dolphins have appeared in five Super Bowls and won or shared the AFC East title in 12 of the last 15 years. Since the merger of the two leagues in 1970, the Dolphins have recorded the best won-lost regular-season record in the entire NFL, and have become one of the most honored teams in all of sports.

In March of 1985, Robbie was instrumental in persuading other NFL owners to award the 1989 Super Bowl to South Florida, and the game is scheduled to be played in Dolphin Stadium. It will be the first Super Bowl played in South Florida in a decade.

Robbie's view of the new stadium is more than just a center for sports. He said, "Far and above the need for this kind of facility and its making the Miami region truly a major league sports center, is the unification that the new stadium will bring to the metropolitan area, knitting together the total South Florida region."

Over the years, awards, honors and positions of public service reveal the multi-dimensional aspects and scope of Robbie.

To cite but a few, he has served on the board of governors as Executive Vice-Chairman of St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, the board of governors of the annual Victor Awards for the benefit of the City of Hope National Medical Center, the board of trustees for Jackson Memorial Hospital, the United Way, American Health Foundation, and St. Leo College.

Robbie has also served on the board of directors of the United Way of Dade County, Catholic Service Bureau, Crippled Children's Society of Dade County, Miami Society of Autistic Children, and is an honorary member of the American Indian Scholarships, Inc.

In 1977, the Touchdown Club of Washington awarded Robbie the prestigious Timmie Award for "extraordinary achievement" by the Dolphins over a four-year period. He has also received the United States Jaycees Hall of Leadership Award, Order of the Knights of St. Gregory (a papal honor), the Humanitarian Award from the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Greater Miami, Owner of the Year Award by Minneapolis-St. Paul Businessmen, the Football News' Man of the Year Award, and the rare Horatio Alger Award in 1979.

NFL owners have twice voted Robbie to serve on the NFL Management Council. He served from 1972-1977 and has been a member once again since 1983. He is also on the NFL Properties Committee.

He was national fund-raising chairman for the Dakota Dome, a $7.2-million arena at his alma mater, the University of South Dakota. In total, five universities and colleges have awarded him honorary doctorate degrees.

Robbie's wife Elizabeth is still the active owner of the Minnesota Strikers soccer team; one son, Tim, is General Manager of the Strikers and Michael is Executive Vice-President and General Manager of the Dolphins.

Robbie spends little time reflecting on the past; rather, he savors the present and plans for the future.

Robbie's current activities are totally directed towards managing the Dolphins' franchise and pushing forward towards the completion of Dolphin Stadium.

One of his peers among NFL owners, William Sullivan of the New England Patriots, called Robbie's stadium project "... the finest contribution that any owner in my lifetime has made," and Sullivan has been in sports for four decades.

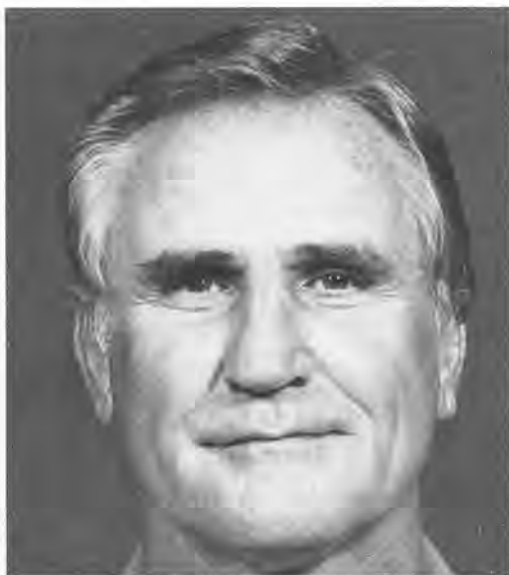

One thing seems certain; when Dolphin Stadium is completed, Robbie will allow himself only a brief moment of satisfaction on a job well done. If his pattern continues, he will be too busy cherishing the next struggle and challenge.

DONALD F. SHULA

VICE-PRESIDENT, HEAD COACH

Don Shula would measure a coach's success by yardsticks other than victories and championships, although he has miles of achievements in those ways. Of greater importance to pro football's most celebrated winner is something intangible. What matters most is one's integrity as a competitor.

"If I'm remembered for anything as a coach," Shula says, "I hope it's for playing within the rules. I also hope it will be said that my teams showed class and dignity in victory or defeat."

Last season, Don Shula again proved his uncanny ability to mold his team's style to its personnel. Employing an air-oriented attack to utilize the talents of quarterback Dan Marino and wide receivers Mark Duper and Mark Clayton, the Dolphins posted an AFC-best 14-2 record. The team set numerous NFL passing records and defeated Seattle and Pittsburgh to cruise into Super Bowl XIX against the San Francisco 49ers. That Super Bowl appearance marked Shula's sixth as an NFL head coach, a feat unequalled by any other league mentor.

In '84, in fact, Shula's Dolphins flirted with another unbeaten season, fashioning 11 straight victories before losing to the San Diego Chargers in overtime. Those 11 wins, coupled with the five regular season triumphs that closed out the 1983 regular season, gave Miami a streak of 16 consecutive wins. Only the 1933-34 Chicago Bears (17) managed a longer win skein.

Shula has assured his place among the giants of the National Football League by being the only coach to reach the Super Bowl three straight years and the youngest coach to win 100 games. His career winning percentage of .716 is the best among the NFL's all-time 10 top winners.

Shula has become to coaching what his unbeaten 1972 Miami Dolphins are to team accomplishment: the standard of excellence by which all others are measured.

But there is an intriguing footnote to the record Shula has carved in his 22 years of pacing the NFL sidelines. This statistic speaks volumes about his coaching ability and his style — the Dolphins have been the least-penalized team in the NFL during Shula's 15 seasons in Miami.

"We never let an error go unchallenged," says Shula, who drills for precision in every practice. "Uncorrected errors will multiply. Someone once asked me if there wasn't benefit in overlooking one small flaw. I asked him, 'What is a small flaw?'"

Shula was voted Coach of the Decade for the 1970s by the Pro Football Hall of Fame's 25-member selection committee, and his Dolphins have reached the playoffs four more times in the 1980s. He marches into 1985 with a record of 242-94-6 and is just one victory behind Dallas' Tom Landry for the number three spot on the all-time victory list.

His "ultimate" achievement was the NFL's first unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972 — in only the third season of Shula's transformation of the Dolphins from a struggling American Football League franchise to an NFL power. His incredible two-year record of 32-2, including Super Bowl conquests in 1972 and 1973, probably will never be surpassed.

Maybe because Shula never regarded an unbeaten season as impossible, the feat became a reality.

"At the beginning of the season, you don't say to yourself, 'We can't win every football game,' " he says. "I believe you go out every day trying to win and every week trying to win. You set a goal to be the best, and then you work hard every hour of every day, striving to reach that goal. If you allow yourself to settle for anything less than Number One, then you are cheating yourself."

With teams in Baltimore and Miami, Shula has built six unbeaten streaks of 10 or more games, and no other coach has more than two 10-game streaks. His .711 winning mark in 15 seasons in Miami (169-68-2) parallels his 72.8 percent success in Baltimore (73-26-4) from 1963 to 1969.

By winning the AFC East title in 1984, the Dolphins have either won or shared first place in the division 12 times in the 15 years under Shula and have reached the playoffs 11 times. His Dolphins have been almost invincible at the Orange Bowl with an 98-21-1 record (82.1%), including an NFL-record 31-game winning streak at home from 1971 to 1974. A remarkable 17 times in 22 seasons, Shula's teams have won at least 10 games.

Shula, 55, has made a mark on the game as an innovator of defensive complexities and situational substitutions, and he has a reputation as a great motivator. Certainly, other coaches can develop brilliant strategy and exhort their players to perform at peak. But Shula seems to surpass others in his skill as a teacher.

"The important thing is not what Don Shula knows or what any of my assistant coaches know," Shula says. "The important thing is that we can transmit to the people we're responsible for. They're going to be tested on Sunday afternoon, and the fact that we win on Sunday afternoon indicates that we're getting through to them. That's what coaching is — the ability to transmit information."

Twice with the Dolphins, in 1970 and 1977, Shula has deployed five rookies in the starting defense and won 10 of 14 games each season. And for those exigencies brought on by injuries to his starting quarterback, Shula has more solutions. Backup quarterbacks for the Dolphins have a 27-7-1 record under Shula since 1970.

He cultivates a winning attitude in pre-season success which reads 86-25-4 (76.5%) including 32-4-1 at Baltimore and 54-21-3 at Miami.

He had been the youngest head coach, 33, in NFL history when the Colts picked him in 1963 after Shula's three years as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions. In the old NFL, the Colts reached the title game in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, and the 1967 Colts posted an 11-1-2 record. Those three powerhouse teams averaged scoring almost 30 points per game.

Shula's resourcefulness is best documented in 1965 when injuries sidelined Colt quarterbacks John Unitas and Garry Cuozzo, and halfback Tom Matte wore the "playbook" on his wristband and directed a 20-17 upset at Los Angeles.

Shula transformed a 3-10-1 Dolphin team into a playoff qualifier his first season in Miami and laid the foundation for a perennial contender. In 1971, the Dolphins won their first of four consecutive AFC East titles, and on Christmas Day in Kansas City, the NFL's longest game (82 minutes, 40 seconds) ended with Garo Yepremian's winning 37-yard field goal in the second overtime. A week later, the Dolphins stymied the Unitas-led Colts 21-0 on the same Poly-Turf where Baltimore had won Super Bowl V the previous January.

Dethroning the Colts launched the Dolphins to three consecutive AFC championships — a feat unequalled in either conference since the 1970 merger. But a disappointing 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI filled Shula and his players with greater drive, and in 1972, the Dolphins attracted headlines as the "Greatest Team Ever."

Shula had claimed 38-year-old Earl Morrall from the waiver list in April, 1972, recalling Morrall's leadership of the 1968 Colts. When quarterback Bob Griese suffered a broken ankle in the fifth game, Morrall took charge for 11 straight victories. The Dolphins rewrote the NFL rushing record (2,960 yards), and with a regular season record of 105-30-5, Shula became the first NFL coach to win 100 games in his first decade. Later in his career, he was to accomplish the even more impressive feat of winning 200 games in his first 20 seasons as an NFL boss.

Surprisingly, the unbeaten Dolphins were three-point underdogs to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. Shula elected to go with a healthy Griese, and the Dolphins dominated the Redskins 14-7 for the coach's first NFL crown.

No less impressive were the 1973 Dolphins, losing only twice in 17 games. The Dolphins set a modern NFL record by allowing only 1,290 yards passing and only five touchdown passes, and they overwhelmed three playoff opponents, 85-33, including a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl VIII.

Another three-game surge in the playoffs, this time a 76-26 blitz, earned the AFC championship in the strike-shortened 1982 season and landed the Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. Miami held a four-point lead in the fourth quarter before Washington broke a long touchdown run that sparked a 27-17 Redskin victory.

Donald Francis Shula was born January 4, 1930 in Grand River, Ohio, and raised in Painesville, Ohio. He was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950, he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula was the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951 (until Shula's college teammate Carl Taseff joined the Browns at mid-season). Shula and Taseff were involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards.

Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959), and he joined the NFL's Detroit Lions in 1960 under Coach George Wilson — a man he later replaced in Miami. The Lions posted a 26-13-1 record with Shula as the defensive coordinator.

"I've tried to learn from all and copy none," Shula says. "Everyone I played or coached under were different types, and I learned from them while still being myself. I've never gone out and tried to be Paul Brown or Blanton Collier or George Wilson. They satisfied my great thirst for knowledge, my searching and looking to find out the what, the how, and the why. I tried to take all the things I've been exposed to, and if I can incorporate them into the framework of Don Shula, that's fine."

In 1963, Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach at Baltimore, and in the 22 seasons which have followed, he has reached the NFL's championship game seven times with two victories.

Today, he takes an active role in NFL leadership, serving since 1975 on the select NFL Competition Committee which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules. Improved safety in pro football has also been a major concern of this committee.

Coach Shula has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support to several area charities. The Don Shula Scholarship Foundation was created in 1978 and has awarded scholarships at several Florida colleges including the University of Florida, Florida State, University of Miami, St. Thomas University, Bethune-Cookman, and Florida A&M University. Shula has also been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, United Way, and Catholic Charities.

Shula especially values his family life and his Catholic faith. He and the former Dorothy Bartish have been married 26 years (7/19/58) and have raised five children — two boys and three girls. Oldest son David, 26, and his wife Leslie presented the Shulas with a grandson in 1983.

David, a 1982 late-season addition to the Dolphin coaching staff, had broken all pass receiving records at Dartmouth and had played for Baltimore in 1981. Younger brother Michael, an all-state quarterback at Columbus High who led the Explorers to the state final in 1982, is a junior quarterback at Alabama.

The Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, became a bride in 1984 and is expecting Coach Shula's second grandchild this November. Sharon is a law student at Florida State University, and Annie attends Barry University in North Miami.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

J. MICHAEL ROBBIE

Executive Vice-President and General Manager

12th NFL Season, 12th with Dolphins

Born: January 6, 1948

Entering his eighth year as the Dolphins' Executive Vice-President and General Manager, Mike Robbie is responsible for the overall operation of the team's front office. His duties encompass all aspects of club operations from contract negotiations to financial management.

Robbie's initial endeavors for the Dolphins came when he served in the team's ticket department from 1971-75, including two seasons as Ticket Director. He then took a three-year leave of absence to obtain his law degree from the University of South Dakota. He returned to South Florida, and in October, 1978, was named to his current position. Robbie's legal training and business background, coupled with his earlier grassroots experience in the Dolphin organization laid solid groundwork for his successful entrance as the team's day-to-day administrator.

Included among his Dolphin projects has been the implementation of a computer system for all club operations from ticket accounts to scouting. In addition, Robbie has represented the Dolphins at NFL meetings since 1979.

Robbie earned both his Juris Doctor and M.B.A. degrees from the University of South Dakota, and he has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He is a member of the South Dakota Bar. The fourth oldest of 11 Robbie children, he is a native of Mitchell, South Dakota and a graduate of Minneapolis De LaSalle High School.

Mike and his wife Dwyn live in Miami Shores.

JOE ABRELL

Vice-President Public Affairs

2nd NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

Born: July 24, 1934

Joe Abrell's first year with the Miami Dolphins was certainly a busy and eventful one. Named to the position of Vice President- Public Affairs on July 6, 1984, Abrell has been heavily involved in the proposed Dolphin Stadium, coordinating marketing and sales for the new South Florida showpiece.

Prior to assuming his current post with the Dolphins, Abrell was Director of Public Affairs for Miami's WTVJ-TV (CBS) where he also hosted and was executive producer of the highly successful "Montage" magazine show. He had assumed his public affairs title in 1972 after serving three years as Channel 4's news director. In 1976, while still holding his position at WTVJ, Abrell earned his law degree from the University of Miami. He has since been admitted to the Florida and District of Columbia bars, as well as to the U.S. Supreme Court. In addition, Abrell is chairman of the Governor's Advisory Committee on Cable Television in Florida.

Following his graduation from Indiana University with a degree in literature and journalism, Abrell served as a reporter for the Terre Haute (Ind.) Star before becoming a correspondent for Newsweek Magazine. After three years at Newsweek, he joined WTVJ as Director of Special News Projects in 1963. From 1965-66, Abrell was a CBS Fellow at Columbia University where he earned his master's degree in political history.

Joe and his wife Judy live in Miami. Daughter Lisa is a Miami money broker while son Brad is a junior at the University of Florida.

JANN ILIFF

General Counsel

1st NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born: November 19, 1952

Jann Iliff assumed her duties as General Counsel for the Miami Dolphins this past July. Prior to joining the Dolphins, she was in private law practice in Minneapolis with experience in civil litigation, commercial law, personal injury, product liability, and medical malpractice.

Iliff received her J.D. degree in 1980 from William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota. While at Mitchell, she was a staff member of the school's Law Review. Iliff earned her undergraduate degree from Carleton College in Northfield, Minnesota.

A native of Minneapolis, Iliff is single and resides in Miami.

MARLO HANSON

Coordinator, Dolphin Stadium Corporation

1st NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born: December 26, 1929

A new addition to the Miami Dolphins' staff, Marlo Hanson serves as the Coordinator of Dolphin Stadium Corp. In that role, Hanson, a registered architect himself, works directly with stadium architects and planners of the proposed 73,000-seat Dolphin Stadium.

Before assuming his present position, Hanson had spent the last 17 years working in various architectural capacities for the State of Minnesota. He began his tenure there as a staff architect, eventually earning the title of Director of Real Estate Management in the Department of Administration. His position entailed performing space management functions for all state agencies in Minnesota. Hanson also participated in plans and construction of various State projects including hospitals, prison systems, and colleges.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Marlo and his wife Betty live in Miami. They have three daughters, Sharon, Janet, and Natalie.

ASSISTANT COACHES

TOM KEANE

Defensive Backs

22nd NFL Season, 20th with Dolphins

Born: September 7, 1926

From the expansion 1966 days of Dolphin defensive backs like Dick Westmoreland and Bob Neff through the 1984 crop of DBs like Don McNeal and Mike Kozlowski, Tom Keane has been a constant. As the Dolphins enter their 20th season, Keane can brag to have been there every step of the way. In fact, among NFL assistant coaches only Dallas' Ernie Stautner (1966-84) can claim to have been worked for one team as long as Keane has.

This season, Keane will assume a new role on the Dolphin coaching staff as he takes command of the club's special teams. With material that includes 1984 consensus All-Pro punter Reggie Roby and 1983 NFL kickoff return champ Fulton Walker, the future of this important phase of the Dolphins is in experienced hands.

Last season, the Dolphins' explosive offense had the team comfortably ahead in several games forcing opponents to throw the ball more often. Miami's defensive backfield responded with 24 interceptions as eight different DBs came up with at least one pick-off. In 1983, Keane molded a top-notch unit that ranked in the NFL's top quarter in both interceptions and pass defense. In the strike-shortened 1982 campaign, Miami DBs boasted 33 interceptions in nine regular season plus four playoff games (2.36 per contest). After joining the Dolphins, Keane-led defensive backfields averaged an impressive 22 interceptions per season. The Dolphins led the NFL in interceptions in 1978 (32), finished second in the AFL in that initial '66 season (31), and in 1973, allowed only five touchdown passes en route to a Super Bowl crown.

The 59-year-old Keane was an All-Pro safety for the Baltimore Colts in 1953, a season he intercepted a Colt record 11 passes. In 1952, Keane picked off ten passes, posted a 42.8-yard punting average, and held the ball for Bert Rechichar's 56-yard field goal that stood as an NFL record for 17 years.

Keane started as a freshman quarterback and tailback for Ohio State's undefeated 1944 club, then served 20 months for the U.S. Navy, stationed in the South Pacific. Upon his return, he enrolled at the University of West Virginia, playing two seasons for the Mountaineers. Keane skipped his senior season to be drafted by Los Angeles, and played for them from 1948-51. He was then traded to the Dallas Texans (1952), continuing with that franchise when it moved to Baltimore (1953-54). After spending the 1955 season with the Chicago Cardinals, Keane suffered a career-ending knee injury while tackling Tank Younger in a '56 pre-season game.

His coaching career began in 1957 with the Cardinals, then continued in 1960 with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League. From 1961-64, Keane was head coach and general manager of the United Football League's Wheeling Ironmen, leading them to a pair of league titles. He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1965 before being named to George Wilson's Dolphin staff in '66.

Tom and his wife Mary (married 7/5/52) live in Miami. The Keanes have two daughters, Candice and Mary, and two sons, Tom and Tim.

BOB MATHESON

Linebackers

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Dolphins

Born: November 25, 1944

The name Bob Matheson conjures up the image of big #53 stalking the opponent for the Dolphins' Super Bowl teams of the mid-70s. Dolphins of the '80s are now getting accustomed to seeing Matheson in his new role as a prominent member of the Miami brain trust. Matheson joined the Dolphin coaching staff in February, 1983 with responsibilities for special teams and linebackers. This season, Matheson will turn over the special teams coaching duties to Tom Keane and concentrate entirely on improving the club's linebackers. Injuries have hurt the Dolphin linebacking corps in recent seasons, but with solid veterans like Bob Brudzinski and Charles Bowser, plus rising young players like Jay Brophy and Jackie Shipp, Matheson's troops certainly have the potential to be among the league's best.

Matheson was an NFL linebacker from 1967-79 for the Cleveland Browns and the Dolphins. A first round draft pick of the Browns in 1967, Matheson played for them for four seasons before being dealt to Miami for a second round draft pick in September, 1971. He became a very valuable weapon in the Dolphin defense's situational substitutions, being used as a fourth linebacker in passing situations with the option to blitz the quarterback or drop back into pass coverage. The now-famous "53 Defense" was named not only for Matheson's jersey number, but also for the five short zones and three deep zones in the pass defense that the system created.

Matheson's 137 total games still rank as the most ever played by a Dolphin linebacker. He led the team in tackles in 1974, was the club's Linebacker of the Year in '75, and had a career-high 130 tackles in '77. Matheson participated in three Super Bowls during his Dolphin tenure.

Matheson earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors during his collegiate career at Duke University (1964-66). In '66, he set a school record for tackles while also being tabbed on several major All-America teams. In 1981, he returned to Duke as the Blue Devils' linebacker coach before joining the Dolphins in '83.

Bob and his wife Pam (married 6/17/67) live in Hollywood with their two sons Todd (9/19/70) and Drew (8/24/73), and daughter Jill (1/21/77).

MEL PHILLIPS

Defensive Backfield

6th NFL Season, 1st with Dolphins

Born: January 6, 1942

This past February 14, Mel Phillips joined the Dolphins as an assistant coach in charge of the defensive backfield. The 43-year-old Phillips had previously held the same position for five seasons for the Detroit Lions (1980-84).

Known for his outstanding rapport with his players, Phillips coached in Detroit under then-Head Coach (and former Dolphin assistant) Monte Clark. In Miami, Phillips inherits a defensive backfield rich in experience that features quality veterans like Don McNeal, William Judson, Mike Kozlowski, and Lyle and Glenn Blackwood, plus young, talented players in Paul Lankford and Bud Brown.

Phillips, a native of Shelby, North Carolina, played 12 seasons for the San Francisco 49ers (1966-77), including eight as a starter at strong safety. A tenacious hitter during his playing days, his career statistics include ten interceptions for 106 return yards (35-yard TD in 1970). Phillips twice won the 49ers' Len Eshmont Award, symbolic of the team's most valuable player. Following his retirement from the 49ers, Phillips worked for the city of San Francisco's juvenile probation department until joining the Lions.

Collegiately, Phillips attended North Carolina A&T where he played both ways as a defensive back and a running back. As a senior, Phillips rushed for 648 yards on 100 carries for 11 touchdowns, and also caught 19 passes for 277 yards and four scores. That season (1965), A&T won the conference championship and Phillips intercepted two passes and rushed for two TDs in the title game. Phillips also lettered for the swimming and track teams at A&T.

Mel and his wife Patricia (married 1/23/65) live in Miami Lakes with their daughters Paulette (6/4/67) and Yvette (5/9/73).

JOHN SANDUSKY

Offense, Offensive Line

27th NFL Season, 10th with Dolphins

Born: December 28, 1925

John Sandusky's coaching title reads "Offense, Offensive Line." In 1984, the Dolphins were more successful in those two areas than they were in any other. Miami's offense broke several NFL and many club records, averaging 32.1 points per game along the way. The Dolphin offensive line again led the league in fewest quarterback sacks allowed, permitting a scant 14. It would thus appear that the '84 season was a highly successful one also for John Sandusky.

Sandusky is entering his 27th year as an NFL coach, five more years of service than any other Dolphin assistant. Despite his assistant coaching title, he is also quite knowledgeable about defense, having spent seven of his 26 seasons coaching the other side of the line of scrimmage. In each of the past two campaigns, four Dolphin offensive linemen have been singled out for some type of post-season honors.

The 59-year-old Sandusky joined the Dolphins in 1976 after spending three seasons (1973-75) as an assistant coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. Prior to that, he was a coach for the Baltimore Colts from 1959-72, including the 1963-69 seasons under then-Colt Head Coach Don Shula. When Shula moved to Miami in 1970, he attempted, but was unable, to bring Sandusky with him. Sandusky was on the Colt staff for their two Super Bowl appearances in games III and V.

When Don McCafferty was fired as Baltimore's head coach after winning only one of the first five games in 1972, Sandusky became the Colt boss and led his charges to four victories in their final nine games. Two of Sandusky's losses that season were to Shula's undefeated Dolphin team.

Sandusky was an All-America tackle at Villanova University (1946-49) before joining the NFL's Cleveland Browns in 1950. He played both offensive and defensive tackle in six seasons in Cleveland as the Browns made it to the NFL title game in all six of those campaigns (three wins). Sandusky then played one year (1956) with the Green Bay Packers before beginning his coaching career at Villanova (1957-58).

Sandusky has the unique distinction of having served in four different capacities in the now-defunct College All-Star game in Chicago. He played (1950) and coached (1958) for the All-Stars, and also played (1951, 1955) and coached (1969, 1971) for the NFL championship team that annually opposed the collegians.

John and his wife Ruth (married 3/31/51) live in Cooper City. They have three sons, Jack, James, and Gerry, and a daughter named Ruth. Another son, Joe, died in 1978 of complications from pneumonia while a sophomore at Tulsa University.

MIKE SCARRY

Defensive Line

20th NFL Season, 16th with Dolphins

Born: February 1, 1920

In 37 years of coaching, Mike Scarry has enjoyed a wide-reaching career. Among other things, he's coached college football, college basketball, been an athletic director, and even a trainer. During his tenure with the Dolphins, Scarry has tutored some excellent defensive linemen such as Manny Fernandez, Bill Stanfill, Vern Den Herder, Bob Baumhower, and Doug Betters. The consistent, quality play that has been exhibited by the Dolphins at the defensive line position has been a major reason why the team has appeared in five Super Bowls since 1970.

Last season, despite injury-plagued seasons from usual starters Bob Baumhower and Kim Bokamper, plus an injury to "fourth man" Mike Charles, the Dolphins managed 42 quarterback sacks. That marked the fifth time in Scarry's tenure that Miami has gone over the 40-sack mark (1973, '75, '78, '83). For the fifth time in the last six seasons, at least one Dolphin defensive linemen was chosen for the prestigious Pro Bowl. Under Scarry, the Dolphins have allowed just 81 rushing touchdowns in their last 105 regular season games over the past seven seasons (1978-84). In 1979, Miami kept opponents under 100 yards rushing on nine occasions, finishing with a miserly 106.4-yard average yield. In addition, Scarry's charges were largely responsible for the Dolphins leading the NFL in shutouts (14) during the 1970s. In terms of individual player honors, Scarry's high point probably came in 1983 when both Doug Betters (AP) and Bob Baumhower (Pro Football Weekly) were selected as the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year.

"Mo" joined Don Shula's Dolphin staff in 1970 after serving as a San Francisco 49er scout during the '69 season. His first professional coaching experience came with the Washington Redskins under Otto Graham from 1966-68.

Scarry enjoyed an 18-year college coaching career with stops at Western Reserve (1948-49), Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras College (1953), Washington State (1954-55), Cincinnati (1956-62), and Waynesburg College (1963-65). At Western Reserve, he also served as the school's head basketball coach (1946-50), and at Waynesburg, he was athletic director, head coach in football and basketball, and served as the school's trainer. During his football head coaching tenure at Waynesburg, his Yellow Jackets posted a 17-8-1 record, including a pair of West Penn Conference titles. In addition, he recruited the undefeated Waynesburg squad that won the NAIA championship in 1966. Scarry is a member of the NAIA, Waynesburg College, and Western Pennsylvania Halls of Fame.

Scarry's playing days began at Waynesburg where he was a center and a linebacker from 1939-41. He has the distinction of having played in the first-ever televised football game between Waynesburg and Fordham in '39. After a two-year Army stint, Scarry joined (and captained) the Cleveland Rams from 1944-45. When the Rams left for Los Angeles, he signed with the Cleveland Browns of the All-America Football Conference (1946-47), captaining them as well, and being named All-Pro in '46.

A native of Duquesne, Pennsylvania, Mike and his wife Elizabeth (married 1/27/43) live in Miami. They have raised eight children, Sally Beth, Mike, Patricia, Tom, Maggie, John, Jim, and Dennis.

DAVID SHULA

Receivers, Quarterbacks

4th NFL Season, 4th with Dolphins

Born: May 28, 1959

In addition to his previous duties of coaching the Dolphins' receivers, this season David Shula will add the tutelage of the club's quarterbacks to his responsibilities. Between those two positions, he will have some "pretty fair" material to work with. Entering his fourth season as an assistant coach, the younger Shula has already proven that he takes after his famous father in two important characteristics — hard work and dedication.

In 1983 (his first full season), the results of his endeavors were very apparent. During the '82 post-season, Shula spent considerable time with wide receiver Mark Duper and incoming rookie quarterback Dan Marino. The results were that Duper, a seldom-used player in '82, emerged as the Dolphins' first-ever 1000-yard receiver, and Marino emerged as perhaps the finest rookie QB in NFL history. In the '83 off-season, Shula redirected much of his energies towards another second-year receiver, Mark Clayton, while continuing to work with Duper and Marino. The results were again spectacular as Clayton set club records for receptions and yards with Duper close behind.

The 26-year-old Shula became a permanent member of the team's coaching staff in January, 1983 following a one month temporary assignment to replace Wally English. At the time of his hiring, Shula was a first-year law student, and thus had to decide whether to pursue a legal or a coaching career.

Shula spent one season (1981) as a return specialist/wide receiver for the Baltimore Colts, leading the club in punt returns. On September 27, 1981, Shula Met Shula as son David's Colt club competed against father Don's Dolphin team.

Shula was a two-time All-Ivy League selection at Dartmouth and holds all major Big Green receiving records including most career catches (133) and most career receiving yardage (1822). He started every game during his varsity career, and as a senior, caught 52 passes (school record) for 758 yards. Shula was also a four-sport letterman at Hollywood's Chaminade High School.

David and his wife Leslie (married 6/5/82) live in Miami with their son Danny (10/9/83).

CHUCK STUDLEY

Defense

17th NFL Season, 2nd with Dolphins

January 17, 1929

In 1985, Chuck Studley enters his second season as the man in charge of the Dolphin defense. The '84 campaign was a transition year for Miami's defenders as Studley installed his defensive schemes following the departure of long-time Dolphin defensive coordinator Bill Arnsparger. With a South Florida season under his belt, Studley is looking for improvement from his defensive troops who were overshadowed last year by the spectacular exploits of the team's record-setting offense.

Studley, who was named to his current post on December 27, 1983, had begun the '83 season as the Defensive Coordinator for the Houston Oilers. Following the team's 0-6 start, Head Coach Ed Biles resigned on October 10, with Studley being tabbed as Interim Head Coach. He took over the undermanned Oilers, guiding them to upsets over Detroit and Cleveland, and nearly one over Miami. Studley's Oilers led Shula's Dolphins in the fourth quarter of their December 4 Astrodome encounter before the visitors finally prevailed, 24-17.

Prior to his service in Houston, Studley spent the 1979-82 seasons as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers. The '81 49er squad went all the way, capturing Super Bowl XVI with a victory over the Cincinnati Bengals. Before heading to California, Studley had been a Bengal assistant for ten seasons (1969-78).

Studley, born in Maywood, Illinois, was an All-America guard at the University of Illinois (1949-51), captaining their undefeated 1951 team that went to the Rose Bowl. He began his coaching career at Alton (Ill.) High School (1952-54) before returning to his alma mater to coach the Fighting Illini (1955-59). As a head coach, he led the University of Massachusetts to a Yankee Conference championship in 1960, then spent eight years at the helm of the University of Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to a pair of Missouri Valley titles.

Chuck and his wife Peggy (married 6/24/50) live in Miami Lakes. They have six children, Carole, Doug, Susan, David, Mike, and Steve.

CARL TASEFF

Offensive Backs

19th NFL Season, 16th with Dolphins

Born: September 28, 1928

When Don Shula arrived in Miami in 1970, so too did Carl Taseff. Taseff and Shula's relationship dates back to their college days when they played in the same backfield together for Coach Herb Eisele's John Carroll squad. They were also roommates while both played for Cleveland (1951-52) and Baltimore (1953-56). Taseff has coached the Dolphins' offensive backs since coming to South Florida, and he's done it with great success. In fact, in the eight-year span from 1970-77, Taseff's backs ranked fifth or higher in NFL rushing on seven occasions. More importantly, Taseff has been able to change with the times. During the 1970s, the Dolphins employed a grind-it-out style that featured powerful fullback Larry Csonka. Since Dan Marino's emergence as Miami's air-oriented quarterback, Taseff's charges have become more a part of the passing game (ie. Tony Nathan has averaged 56.5 receptions over the past two seasons).

Taseff came to Miami after spending two years working for the CEPO scouting combine (1968-69). Prior to that, he had coaching stints with the AFL's Boston Patriots (1964) and the NFL's Detroit Lions (1965-66).

As a player, Taseff was a star running back at Cleveland's John Carroll University, scoring 22 touchdowns in 1950. He began his pro career in 1951 with his hometown Cleveland Browns before beginning a nine-year term (1953-61) with the Baltimore Colts. A cornerback for the Colts, Taseff set a team record with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown against Green Bay (10/14/56). He holds an NFL record with a 99-yard return of a Walt Michael's field goal attempt against the Rams (12/12/59). After the Colts, Taseff played the latter part of the '61 season for Philadelphia before winding up his playing career with Buffalo in 1962. Overall, Taseff's career stats show 112 punt returns for 826 yards...and no fumbles.

Carl and his wife Lucy (married 11/18/78) live in Pembroke Pines. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan by a previous marriage.

JUNIOR WADE

Strength and Conditioning

11th NFL Season, 11th with Dolphins

Born: February 2, 1947

In his third season as the Dolphins' Strength and Conditioning Coach, Junior Wade also administers the team's successful off-season conditioning program and assists with the Miami special teams. Previously, Wade had served eight years as the club's assistant trainer. The promotion to assistant coaching status was a well-deserved reward for the affable Wade. As a trainer, he had long had the respect of the Dolphin players for his knowledge and his willingness to boost player morale by putting himself through the same rigorous rehabilitation as that prescribed for injured Dolphins.

Appointed to his present position on February 15, 1983, Wade first joined the Dolphins as training camp assistant for the 1973-74 pre-seasons. He was hired by the Dolphins on a full-time basis in time for the 1975 campaign. Wade's past job experience includes having worked as an athletic trainer and guidance counselor at Fayetteville State and as the trainer for the St. Louis Cardinals' baseball farm team in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Wade was also the head baseball coach and assistant trainer at Davidson College. In 1975, he led the Wildcats to a 21-15 record, the best mark the school had ever posted. A three-year letterman himself at South Carolina State, Wade also earned his master's degree in education.

Junior, a native of Bath, South Carolina, lives in Hialeah with his wife Constance (married 12/13/70) and sons Aaron (2/25/72) and Jason (2/24/80).

PLAYER PERSONNEL

CHARLEY WINNER

Director of Pro Personnel, Administrative Asst.

31st NFL Season, 5th with Dolphins

Born: July 2, 1925

This past off-season, Charley Winner was given the responsibility of negotiating most player contracts. That duty goes along with Winner's other tasks that include scouting upcoming Dolphin opponents, searching for free agent talent, and handling waiver and trade transactions. A true veteran of the National Football League, Winner is in his 31st league season and fifth with the Dolphins.

Winner joined the Dolphins in 1981 after working one year for a cable television company. Prior to that, he enjoyed a distinguished coaching career which began in 1948 as an assistant under future father-in-law Weeb Ewbank at Washington University in St. Louis. He moved to Case Tech in 1950 under Head Coach Lou Saban, remaining there for four seasons. In 1954, Winner began his professional coaching career at Baltimore, again with Ewbank at the helm. From 1954-65, he coached Colt ends, defensive backs, linebackers, and served as defensive coordinator. During his Baltimore stint, he coached a defensive back named Don Shula, later serving on Shula's staff when he became the Colt boss.

In 1966, Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five seasons. His teams had a 35-30-5 record, including an outstanding 9-4-1 mark in 1968. From 1971-72, Winner coached defensive backs for George Allen's Washington Redskins, whose '72 squad lost to the Dolphins in the Super Bowl. He was again reunited in 1973 with Ewbank, this time as an assistant for the New York Jets. Winner took over as Jet head coach the following year, posting a 9-14 slate in two seasons. He then coached Cincinnati's defensive backfield from 1976-79. Under Winner's guidance, Bengal DBs had conference rankings of first (1976) and second (1978) during his tenure there.

A native of Somerville, New Jersey, Winner attended Southeast Missouri State College for one year before being drafted into the service in 1942. A radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, he flew 17 missions over Germany, and once spent six weeks in a German POW camp. Following the war, he completed his education at Washington University, earning letters in football and track.

Charley and his wife Nancy (married 6/23/50) live in Plantation. They have two daughters, Cinda and Lisa.

CHUCK CONNOR

Director of Player Personnel

8th NFL Season, 8th with Dolphins

Born: July 7, 1937

The Dolphins' guru when it comes to scouting college players is Director of Player Personnel Chuck Connor, currently in his eighth season in that capacity. Preparing for the NFL's annual college draft is Connor's primary concern, and he has done that well during his Dolphin tenure, boasting 36 players from his first seven drafts who remain on the team's roster heading into the '85 pre-season.

Since Connor's arrival, the Dolphins have slowly rebuilt several key areas, including the defensive backfield, the offensive line, running back, and the kicking game. Connors astute scouting and drafting has accomplished this without missing a competitive beat. The Dolphins won divisional titles in 1979, '81, '83, and '84, and made it to the Super Bowl in '82 and '84.

Connor joined the Dolphins in February, 1978 after spending the previous three years scouting for BLESTO, an organization that provides college player evaluations to subscribing NFL teams. In his last year with BLESTO, Connor had been promoted from area to regional scout, responsible for a nine-state area in the southeastern United States.

Connor began his career as a coach on the high school level, spending 15 years (1960-74) at Montour High near Pittsburgh. Eight of those seasons were spent as a head coach, with his 1967 squad going undefeated. In '74, he continued as a teacher at Montour while becoming the defensive backfield coach at Carnegie-Mellon University. While at Montour, Connor had begun evaluating players from film for the Pittsburgh Steelers, which eventually led to his BLESTO position.

Chuck and his wife Dorothy (married 6/27/59) live in Stone Mountain, Georgia. They have four children, Chuck (4/23/60), Mike (1/16/65), Karen (6/20/66), and Scott (7/29/76).

MILT DAVIS

College Scout

19th NFL Season, 8th with Dolphins

Born: May 31, 1929

Since 1978, the Dolphins' scout for the 14-state western region has been Milt Davis. In addition to his scouting duties, Davis also assists the Dolphin coaching staff during mini-camp and portions of summer training camp. He also serves as a counselor and biology professor at Los Angeles City College.

Davis began his scouting career in 1967 with the Baltimore Colts, continuing in that capacity until 1976. He spent the '77 season "beating the bushes" for the Los Angeles Rams before joining the Dolphins.

In four seasons as a Colt defensive back (1957-60), Davis twice tied for the NFL lead in interceptions and was an All-Pro selection in 1957. In that rookie season, Davis picked off ten of his 27 career interceptions. He was a member of the Colts' 1958 and '59 teams that defeated the New York Giants for the league championship.

Richly educated, Davis received his undergraduate degree, a master's degree in zoology (he's an avid bird-watcher), and a doctorate in administrative education from UCLA.

Milt and his wife Yvonne (married 1/18/58) live in Los Angeles. They have three children, Allison (2/19/59) and twins Brian and Hilary (5/21/62).

MIKE CARTWRIGHT

College Scout

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Dolphins

Born: February 12, 1946

The responsibilities of scouting the Rocky Mountain states fall on the shoulders of the capable Mike Cartwright. In his third Dolphin season, Cartwright came to the Miami organization from the BLESTO scouting combine. He worked for BLESTO from 1979-82, first as an area scout before being promoted to regional scout.

Cartwright's initial scouting position was with the San Francisco 49ers, working for Pro-Line. Prior to that, he was head coach and athletic director at St. Mary's School in Cheyenne, Wyoming for three years before serving the same tenure as head football coach at Cheyenne East High. Also a former teacher, Cartwright holds a B.S. in physical education and biological science from the University of Wyoming.

Mike and his wife Mary (married 9/25/74) live in Cheyenne with their son Jeremy (4/25/77), and Mike's two sons by a previous marriage, Chad (12/12/64) and Brad (12/30/68).

FOOTBALL STAFF

BOB LUNDY

Head Trainer

19th NFL Season, 19th with Dolphins

Born: March 28, 1936

For 18 years, the job of taking care of the Dolphin players' daily assortment of major and minor injuries has belonged to Head Trainer Bob Lundy. One of the most respected trainers in the NFL, Lundy is responsible for the day-to-day treatment of injured Dolphins in coordination with team physicians. In conjunction with Assistant Coach Junior Wade, Lundy also oversees the team's off-season conditioning program.

Lundy keeps abreast of the latest advances in training technology through his regular attendance at NATA conventions. Perhaps his highest honor came in 1974 when Dolphin players awarded Lundy the game ball following Miami's fourth consecutive AFC Eastern Division title.

Lundy joined the Dolphins for their inaugural 1966 season under then-Head Coach George Wilson, and has been with the club for all but one of its campaigns (he sold real estate in 1973). When Don Shula took over as head coach in 1970, Lundy was retained and he has been manning the training room ever since.

A native of Wollaston, Massachusetts, Lundy is a 1958 graduate of Boston University. While a graduate student at Indiana University, he served as the Hoosier's assistant trainer before becoming the head trainer at Detroit University (1960-63). Lundy's first professional job came in 1964 when he served two seasons as the Detroit Lions' assistant trainer.

Bob and his wife Alice (married 6/2/62) live in Miami. They have three sons, Bobby (3/30/63), Billy (6/30/66), and David (1/30/70).

BILL DAVIS

Assistant Trainer

3rd NFL Season, 3rd with Dolphins

Born: April 8, 1954

In his third season as the Dolphins' Assistant Trainer is 31 year-old Bill Davis. Davis assists Head Trainer Bob Lundy with injury treatment and rehabilitation of Dolphin players. He has been a full-time member of the Dolphin staff since May, 1983 after spending five pre-seasons (1975-79) as a summer training camp assistant to Lundy.

Davis initially got involved in athletic training while he was a student at Davidson College. He aided current Dolphin Assistant Coach Junior Wade while Wade was baseball coach and assistant trainer for the Wildcats. Davis received his B.A. degree from Davidson in 1976, and earned his NATA certification the following year.

In 1978, Davis got his master's degree in health and physical education from Tennessee Tech. The following fall, he was named Athletic Trainer for Men at the University of Tennessee-Martin, a position he held until accepting his current post.

Bill and his wife Linda (married 7/7/84) live in Pembroke Pines with her four children from a previous marriage, Kim, Bradley, Chas, and Brook.

BOB MONICA

Equipment Manager

5th NFL Season, 5th with Dolphins

Born: May 6, 1957

Bob Monica assumes the duties of Dolphin equipment manager this year after four seasons as assistant equipment manager. Monica, a visible figure around the Dolphins' training camp, will be responsible for issuing and ordering all playing equipment for the team.

The 28-year-old Monica earned a B.S. in sports administration from Miami's St. Thomas University. He transferred to St. Thomas from Furman University in Greenville, South Carolina, where he had been attending college on a football scholarship. A native of Madison, New Jersey, Monica captained Madison High School's 1976 football state champions. In addition, he was New Jersey state wrestling champion in the 188 lb. division (1976). In 1975, Monica traveled with the USA Junior Olympic Wrestling team to Germany and Bulgaria.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Monica was a production manager for Electric Factory Concerts in Philadelphia. Single, he resides in Pembroke Pines.

DOLPHINS ARE BEST SINCE 1970 MERGER

Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have consistently ranked in the top echelon of pro football. In fact, the Dolphins have a better winning percentage than any other team during that span. The Dolphins are also the only team in either the AFC or NFC to win three straight conference championships (1971-73).

1984: Became the starting fullback in game 3 due to knee injury to Andra Franklin... Responded by leading Dolphins in rushing with 606 yards on 144 carries plus seven touchdowns... Statistics in yards, carries, and TDs in '84 surpassed entire five-year career totals in those categories... Appeared in all 16 regular season games with career-high nine starts (also started all three playoff games)... In first start of season, had 56 yards on 16 totes against Buffalo on September 17... Versus Colts on September 23, had seven carries for 36 yards and career-best two touchdowns (4, 1 yards)... Averaged 7.2 yards per-carry (5/36 yards) in win over Houston on October 14... Following week at New England, had season-high 80 yards on 14 attempts (6.6 yard average) in second best career rushing performance... Also led team in rushing on November 4 versus Jets with 45 yards on nine carries including three-yard score against ex-teammates... In Jets' rematch, again paced club with 66 yards on 10 rushes... Totaled 81 yards on 22 attempts in three post-season games... After continual injury problems, proved in '84 that when healthy, is an excellent NFL fullback.

PRO: Dependable player, in 1983 gained 197 yards rushing (4.0 average) and also was standout special teamer... Missed most of 1982 season on injured reserve before being activated prior to regular season finale... In January 23, 1983 AFC title game versus Jets, scored seven-yard TD to snap scoreless tie in eventual 14-0 Miami win... Earned starting berth in 1981, gaining 104 yards on 28 carries in first three games before being sidelined by torn knee ligaments against Houston... Was claimed by Dolphins after being waived by Jets on November 18, 1980 and became a starter 12 days later... Replacing Terry Robiskie, amassed 187 yards on 43 attempts (4.3 average) in three starts, missing the season finale with a foot injury... In second start, gained 77 yards on ten carries in win over New England... Received game ball the next week at Baltimore, gaining 86 yards on 20 carries and catching a 19-yard TD pass in front of family and friends from nearby York, Pennsylvania... Had carried only three times for 13 yards in eight 1980 games for Jets before joining Dolphins... Made '79 New York squad as a free agent and saw action in 15 games... Ended up as a Jet try-out after unsuccessful five-week trial with Montreal of the CFL.

COLLEGE: Played two years (1976-77) at the University of Miami, gaining a total of 164 yards... Was a blocking back for Ottis Anderson, now with the St Louis Cardinals... Began college career at Arizona Western Junior College as a defensive end in 1974 and was red-shirted in '75.

PERSONAL: Single, spends the off-season in York, Pennsylvania... After leaving the University of Miami, spent six months working a night shift for Consolidated Freightways in Los Angeles... Spent winter of '79 training at Body Masters in New Orleans under renowned bodybuilder Boyer Coe... Dramatically increased strength, and is only Dolphin running back to surpass 400 pounds in bench press... Attended William Penn High School in York, earning all-state honors as defensive end... Also lettered in track, setting school shot put record... Full name is Woodrow Bennett, Jr., born March 24, 1955.

1984: For second consecutive season, was named Dolphins' Defensive Lineman of the Year by South Florida media... Started all 16 regular season games plus the three post-season contests... Led all Miami defensive linemen in tackles with 67 on 54 solos and 13 assists... Also had team-leading 14 QB sacks plus three passes defended and a fumble recovery... Has now registered 30 quarterback drops in last 32 regular season games... Had perhaps best game of year on September 23 in 44-7 win over Indianapolis with a team-leading eight tackles (5,3) plus three QB sacks... Most memorable play of season came against Philadelphia when a block of a Paul McFadden PAT attempt with 1:52 to play preserved 24-23 Dolphin victory on November 11... Averaged over six solos plus a sack over the last six regular season games... Contributed eight solos, one QB drop, plus a pass defended in 28-17 besting of Jets on November 26... In regular season finale versus Cowboys on December 17, had six solos and pair of sacks of Danny White... 13 tackles in playoff action again paced all Dolphin linemen and included seven stops plus a QB sack in Super Bowl loss.

PRO: Has really emerged as one of top pass rush specialists in NFL... Had best-ever season in 1983, with honors including AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year, AP First Team All-Pro, and Pro Bowl starter... Finished third in league in quarterback sacks with 16, trailing New York's Mark Gastineau (19) and San Francisco's Fred Dean (17½)... Had four sacks in '83 opener (9/4 at Buffalo) and two fumble recoveries in final 1:54 of 11/6/83 49er game helped save 20-17 Miami win... Holds Dolphin club record for forced fumbles with 14... Was second on team in sacks with four in strike-shortened 1982 season... Broke right thumb in first game following strike (vs. Buffalo, November 21) and missed two starts, then played with cast for remainder of Super Bowl season... Switched from right end to left end for 1981 campaign and had five QB drops and 63 tackles... Had played 65 consecutive games when hospitalized by staph infection and a severe back boil prior to AFC East championship game vs. Buffalo (12/19/81)... Received first-ever game ball for that Bills' match, despite listening to game on radio from hospital room... Notched a career-high 83 tackles to go along with four sacks in 1980... Became a full-time starter in 1979 and had 74 tackles and eight sacks, thus causing switch of A.J. Duhe to linebacker for 1980... With Duhe injured, started six games as a rookie in '78 with 50 tackles and four sacks... Sixth round draftee, 163rd player in 1978.

COLLEGE: Spent senior season (1977) at Nevada/Reno and helped Wolfpack to 8-3 record with 82 tackles, ten QB sacks, four forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries... 1984: For fourth consecutive season, started all Dolphin regular season games... Statistics included 66 total tackles (55, 11), one fumble recovery, and 12 passes defensed... Led team with six interceptions for 169 return yards... With 18 career pick-offs, is now sixth on Dolphins' all-time interception list... Had clutch interception of Joe Theismann pass with 27-yard return in season-opening 35-17 victory at Washington... In 28-7 win over New England in home opener, had two interceptions of Patriot QB Steve Grogan... Also had pair of interceptions for 80 return yards (50, 30) plus two passes defensed and a fumble recovery in 44-7 drubbing of Colts on September 23... Combined with brother Lyle for 14 solos in win over St. Louis the following week... In Indianapolis rematch on December 9, had team-high six solos plus an interception of a Mike Pagel pass with a 35-yard return... In AFC Championship game against Pittsburgh on January 6, contributed six tackles, one interception, and three passes defensed.

PRO: Known as a hard hitter and intelligent player, makes all Dolphin defensive calls in the secondary... In 1983, led team with four fumble recoveries, and also had 73 tackles and four interceptions... In Miami's Super Bowl season of '82, had two regular season interceptions plus three post-season pickoffs for NFL's top-rated defensive backfield... Returned interception 35 yards for touchdown in 45-28 win over Jets on September 12, 1982... Was voted Outstanding Defensive Back by South Florida media for 1981 when four interceptions led the club... Older brother Lyle joined team in seventh game of '81 season and duo became known nationally as "The Bruise Brothers"... Had pair of interceptions against Terry Bradshaw in nationally-televised 30-10 Dolphin win over Pittsburgh for personal '81 highlight... In first year as starter in 1980, set team record for tackles by a DB with 118, and also had three interceptions... As a rookie in 1979, was club's nickel back before season-ending knee injury in Dolphins' 11th game... Suffered torn ligaments against Baltimore in freak confrontation with brother Lyle... With Lyle blocking for a Colt punt returner, unsuccessfully dodged him and landed awkwardly... That had been the first-ever on-field confrontation between the Blackwoods... Eighth round draftee, 215th player in 1979.

Acquired by Dolphins from Rams on April 28, 1981 just minutes before the start of the '81 draft... Miami surrendered third-round choice in 1981, second-round pick in '82, and changed places with Rams on second round selection (from 15th to 28th pick)... Had a strange 1980 season, walking out of Rams' camp five days before season opener, returning the day before the opening game, and starting the second-ninth games before again leaving on November 5 in contract dispute... Helped '79 Rams to Super Bowl, finishing second on club in tackles with 127, notching five QB sacks, and defending 14 passes... Was part of Ram defense that set NFL record by holding Seattle to -7 yards total offense in '79 contest... Finally won starting job in October, 1978 and contributed 58 tackles for NFL's #1 defense... Scored only TD of career on 31-yard interception return of Scott Bull pass in '78... Started seven games as a 1977 rookie before Jack Reynolds reclaimed job after contract hold-out... Had 54 tackles and a pair of interceptions as a frosh... Joined Paul Warfield, Mike Current, and Neal Colzie as only former Ohio Staters who have started for Dolphins — all obtained by trade... Considered very intelligent player, is a firm believer in film study... First round draftee, 23rd player in 1977 (third LB behind Robert Jackson and Robin Cole).

COLLEGE: Had outstanding career at Ohio State with 214 tackles in 43 games for the Buckeyes... As a senior, honored as an All-America by AP, UPI, NEA, Football Writers, Kodak, and Football News... Was a two-time All-Big Ten selection... Was named club MVP as senior and played in Hula Bowl and Japan Bowl... Celebrated 22nd birthday in Buckeyes' 27-10 win over Colorado in 1977 Orange Bowl as Ohio State posted 9-2-1 record... In junior year, Buckeyes had 11-1 mark... Has a B.S. in marketing.

PRO: Huge lineman whose assigned weight is highest in Dolphin history... Strong player, is especially effective on run defense... Played 1983 rookie season as NFL's youngest player, beginning campaign at only 20 years of age... Played all 16 games (3 starts) with 26 tackles and three sacks... Tackled Jets' QB Pat Ryan in end zone to record a safety in Miami's 32-14 win at New York (10/16/83)... When injuries decimated Dolphin linebacking corps in that game, played as fourth man in 4-3 deviation from team's normal 3-4 defense... Earned first NFL start the next week in Baltimore and contributed five tackles... Unveiled controversial (and since banned) "Levitation Dance" following sack of Richard Todd in Dolphins' 34-14 triumph over Jets in regular season finale (12/16/83)... Second round draftee, 55th player in 1983.

COLLEGE: Capped off senior year at Syracuse with several post-season honors... Named First Team All-America by Football Writers, Second Team by UPI, Third Team by AP and Sporting News, and was also an All-East selection... Credited with 41 solos and 32 assists in senior season... Earned appearance in Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game... In junior year, had 71 total tackles (45 solos, 26 assists)... Earned B.S. in speech communications.

PERSONAL: Single, now resides year-round in Miami... Spent off-season doing volunteer work for Special Olympics and United Way... Hobbies include traveling and dating... Lists favorite TV show as "All My Children," favorite movies as "Beverly Hills Cop" and "Police Academy."

and favorite book as the Dolphins' Playbook... Enjoys listening to Mid-night Star... 1984: Was acquired by the Dolphins just prior to this past May's mini-camp... Began 1984 season with eventual world champion San Francisco 49ers... Was active for two regular season games before being released, but did not see QB action in either... Was available for September 2 opener versus Detroit (Lions were coached at the time by father Monte) before being waived and brought back for the September 23 Philadelphia game... Was again released, but was signed by Cincinnati on December 5... Played briefly at quarterback for Bengals against Buffalo on December 16, but did not attempt a pass... In '84 pre-season for 49ers, completed 16 of 24 passes for 139 yards, no TDs, and two interceptions... Obtained by Dolphins in exchange for conditional draft choice from Bengals on May 7.

PRO: Intelligent player, possesses outstanding ability to read defenses... Career progress has been slowed by injuries... Spent the entire 1983 season on injured reserve due to shoulder separation... Hurt shoulder in pre-season match in San Diego (8/20/83) after completing seven of 12 throws for 68 yards in the game... In rookie season of 1982, was on active roster for total of seven games... In pre-season, showed promise by connecting on 20 of 26 tosses for 193 yards and two touchdowns (both to Eason Ramson) and running three times for 15 yards... As in '83, suffered serious injury in pre-season game at San Diego (8/28/82), incurring sprained ankle... Was on club's four-man inactive list for first two regular season contests of strike season, but was re-activated for final seven... Biggest compliment comes from 49er Head Coach Bill Walsh who says, "Bryan has a future in the NFL"... Ninth round draftee, 251st player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed fine four-year career at Michigan State... Career totals included 2725 yards passing from 1978-81... Best season came as a senior, completing 109 of 204 passes for 1521 yards and 14 touchdowns... Also ran 48 times for additional 119 yards and one score... Earned team MVP honors that year... Holds B.A. in communications.

 NFL 3rd Year

1984: Had truly sensational season in 1984... Leaped into national prominence with record-setting campaign in just second NFL season... In 15 starts, eclipsed team records for receptions (73), reception yards (1389), and touchdown catches (18)... 18 TD receptions was also an NFL record, breaking former mark of 17 held by Don Hutson (Green Bay, 1942), Elroy Hirsch (L.A. Rams, 1951), and Bill Groman (Houston, 1961)... Those 18 scores tied with Raiders' Marcus Allen for most TDs by any NFL player in '84... Post-season honors (listed separately below) included AP Second Team All-Pro, AFC Pro Bowler, and USA Today First Team All-Pro... Ranked third in league in reception yards and was fifth in AFC in catches... According to Sportsagram's complex Receivers Rating System, was the top NFL receiver in '84 with a 131.4 rating (St. Louis' Roy Green was a distant second with 114.8)... Along with Mark Duper, became only teammates to ever each amass over 1300 receiving yards... Enjoyed six 100-plus yard receiving days last year... Caught at least one touchdown pass in 16 of Miami's 19 total games in 1984... Appeared on cover of Sports Illustrated (9/10) following clutch scoring catch in season-opening win at Washington on September 2... Earned a game ball for performance in 36-28 triumph at St. Louis on September 30 with five cradlings for 143 yards and a TD (plus a 15-yard rush)... Scored touchdown and set up three others the following week versus Steelers, with stats totaling five receptions for 110 yards in 31-7 Miami win... At New England on October 21, caught seven balls for 99 yards (1 TD that was Dan Marino's 25th scoring toss that broke Bob Griese's club record) and rushed once for 30 yards... Nabbed three passes for 106 yards and two touchdowns (7 yards, career-high 65 yards) in 38-7 Dolphin besting of Buffalo on October 28... In Miami's 45-34 loss to the Raiders on December 2, enjoyed career-bests for receptions (9) and yards (177) plus two TDs (second score broke Nat Moore/Larry Csonka club record of 13 TDs in a season)... 11-yard touchdown versus L.A. came on "ally-oop" play, literally outjumping Raiders' All-Pro cornerback Lester Hayes and causing him to remark, "Clayton and (Mark) Duper are the two best receivers in the NFL"... Returned to hometown of Indianapolis for December 9 game and had nine receptions for 127 yards and one touchdown... In that 35-17 win over the Colts, broke Dolphin single-season reception record of 67 that had been held by Jack Clancy (1967)... Really gained national prominence in Monday night game against Dallas December 17 with four snags for 150 yards and three TDs to earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors... The three touchdowns included 39-yarder with 2:31 remaining and a 63-yard score with 51 seconds left that was game-winner (and broke NFL season standard)... In Dolphins' three post-season matches, registered five catches for 75 yards and one TD versus Seattle, four for 95 yards and one TD versus Pittsburgh (sat out second half with shoulder sprain), and six for 92 yards versus San Francisco.

PRO: Speedy receiver, is even more dangerous because of outstanding leaping ability... Was a receiver, passer, rusher, and kick returner for Dolphins in '83... Appeared in 14 games and set a club record for punt return yardage in a season with 392 on 41... Had become Miami's punt returner following opening-game knee injury to Tom Vigorito... Scored first-ever NFL TD against Bills on 14-yard catch in 38-35 OT loss (10/9/83) while also throwing 48-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper on a double reverse option (Marino to Nathan to Clayton)... Received first game ball following 37-0 shutout of Colts (11/20/83) thanks to 60-yard punt return for score... Suffered broken rib versus Cincinnati (11/28/83) and missed next two games... Eighth round draftee, 223rd player in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had school record-setting tenure at the University of Louisville... Set Cardinal career records for most receiving yards (2004) and highest average per-catch (20.9)... Enjoyed spectacular senior season with 53 catches for Louisville record 1112 yards, 20.9 yard average, and six touchdowns to rank 13th in nation in receiving... Also set school standard with three TD receptions versus Richmond on October 16, 1982... Was named All-South Independent and team MVP in '82... As a junior, had 27 catches for 596 yards (22.1 average) and three TDs, and contributed 15 receptions for 288 yards (19.2 average) and one touchdown as a sophomore... Majored in telecommunications.

PERSONAL: Single, splits off-season between Miami and Indianapolis... Did promotional work for Storer Cable during off-season... Hobbies include playing the guitar and going to arcades... Lists favorite movie as "Beverly Hills Cop," favorite TV show as "The Bill Cosby Show," and favorite recording artist as Stevie Wonder... Is also a big fan of Denny Crum-led Louisville Cardinal basketball team... Legend has it that while a student at Louisville, once jumped length-wise over a ping pong table... Sister Nancy will be a scholarship freshman for the University of Miami's women's basketball team this fall... Most embarrassing moment was early celebration before reaching the goal line last season (fumbled ball, but recovered in end zone for TD)... Enjoys working with children... Attended Cathedral High School in Indianapolis, lettering in football (all-state), basketball, and track... Full name is Mark Gregory Clayton, born April 8, 1961 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

1984: Had injury-plagued season, appearing in 12 games with eight starts... Following '83 campaign, had knee and shoulder surgery and was on injured reserve for first four games of '84 (reactivated 9/28/84)... In 1985 off-season, again underwent shoulder surgery, then had another knee operation when shoulder was strong enough to support crutches... Status is questionable for '85 season... Last year, contributed 53 tackles on 43 solos and ten assists, plus one interception, a forced fumble, and two passes defended... Highlight of season was first-ever Pro Bowl selection... Was in on five tackles and forced a Tony Collins fumble that led to a Miami touchdown in 44-24 win at New England on October 21... Paced club in total tackles with eight (6, 2) the following week in 38-7 conquest over Buffalo... In November 4 victory over Jets, again led team in tackles with eight and also had key interception that thwarted New York's fourth quarter attempt to tie (was first interception since Super Bowl XVII)... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors the following game against Philadelphia by leading team in tackles for third consecutive game (ten total)... Managed nine tackles and a quarterback sack in Dolphins' 28-17 besting of Jets on November 26.

PRO: Despite injuries, remains one of the most colorful players in the NFL... In 1983, finished fourth on team with 87 tackles and was named to UPI's Second Team All-AFC squad as well as being a Pro Bowl alternate... Forced two key fumbles and had seven solos in prime time win over Cincinnati (11/28/83)... Tore knee ligaments in playoff loss to Seattle (12/31/83) and underwent surgery two days later... Ended up fourth on team in total tackles in 1982 with 56... In four '82 playoff games, had 19 tackles, four QB sacks, and four interceptions... Really gained national prominence in AFC Championship game on January 23, 1983 with three interceptions, including one returned 35 yards for a touchdown in 14-0 win over Jets... "Controlled freelancing" at LB position was contributing force in New York QB Richard Todd's five interceptions... Finished second among team tackle leaders in '81 with 110 (61 solos, 49 assists), and also added 7½ sacks... Earned pair of game balls that season versus St. Louis and Kansas City... Named First Team All-AFC by UPI following 1981 campaign... Move to linebacker from defensive lineman during Larry Gordon's 1980 training camp holdout was prompted by local sportswriter's suggestion to Head Coach Don Shula... Began '80 season at outside linebacker, moving inside by third game... Had 84 total tackles and tied for team lead in sacks with 5½ that year... Slowed by abdominal muscle pull in 1979, eventually lost starting right end job to Doug Betters... Missed first five games of 1978 while rehabilitating from August knee surgery... Had 47 tackles and career-high eight sacks in '78... Accounted for longest fumble return in Dolphin history on October 15, 1978, sprinting 68 yards with a Dan Fouts bobble... Was co-NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1977 with teammate Bob Baumhower after leading Miami in sacks with seven and making 83 tackles... Earned game ball versus Jets with three QB drops in 14-10 win, and helped cement 17-5 triumph over New England with blocked punt that led to clinching TD... First round draftee, 13th player in 1977 (seventh defensive lineman).

COLLEGE: Was a four-year starter at LSU and a two-time Academic All-SEC... Averaged 72 tackles per season during Tiger career, and also had 27 tackles for losses (-133 yards)... Notched 84 total tackles as a senior, and was named Most Valuable Defensive Player for South squad in Senior Bowl... Senior Bowl head coach was Don Shula and defensive linemate was Alabama's Bob Baumhower... Awarded scholarship to LSU after blocking three punts in 1973 high school all-star game... Holds B.S. in general studies.

PERSONAL: Married to Frances (5/24/80), couple resides in Miami Shores with son Adam Joseph III (10/6/83)... Wife is a former Orange Bowl queen... Business-wise, owns Adam's Seafood and Produce in Louisiana, and is a partner in two other ventures, Chroma-Copy and an airline leasing firm with teammate Doug Betters... Second annual A.J. Duhe Golf Invitational again raised over $10,000 for St. Augustine's Florida State School for the Deaf and Blind... Hobbies include snow skiing, fishing, home computers, and playing golf... Lists favorite TV shows as "Miami Vice" and "Wheel of Fortune," and favorite movies as "Beverly Hills Cop" and "Terms of Endearment"... Enjoys listening to Bruce Springsteen, Jimmy Buffet, and John Cougar... Attended Leon Godchaux High School in Reserve, Louisiana, lettering in football, baseball, and basketball... 1984: Had another outstanding season in '84 in Dolphins' pass-oriented offense... Started all 16 games and had 71 catches for 1306 yards (18.4-average) and eight touchdowns... Both receptions and yards would have eclipsed prior Dolphin records if not for even better figures compiled by Mark Clayton... Coupled with Clayton, duo became nationally known as the "Marks Brothers" and "Mark II"... Was voted by peers to start for AFC in Pro Bowl and was also a First Team All-AFC choice by UPI... According to Sportsgram's complex Receivers Rating System, was fifth most efficient wide-out in AFC with a 98.5 rating... Along with Clayton, became only teammates in league history to each go over the 1300-yard reception mark in a single season... Including playoffs, had five 100-plus yard games... Most productive game of the year came in season-opening 35-17 victory at Washington with six catches for 178 yards and two touchdowns (26, 74 yards)... Was second-best yardage total in brief career, and was fourth best in Dolphin history... Snagged seven balls for 173 yards and two more TDs (5, 80 yards) in 44-7 beating of Colts on September 23... Enjoyed career-best eight catches for 164 yards in 36-28 win at St. Louis on September 30... Was on the receiving end of seven Dan Marino aials for 155 yards in November 4 31-17 Orange Bowl win over Jets ... Went over the 1000-yard receiving mark against Philadelphia on November 11, and was the subject of Sports Illustrated cover story the following week ... In Miami's first loss of season on November 18 (at San Diego), caught five passes for 99 yards ... Was star receiver in AFC Championship win over Pittsburgh with five receptions for 148 yards and a pair of TDs (41, 36 yards) ... Those 148 yards were most receiving yards in Dolphin post-season history.

PRO: One of the fastest receivers in the NFL, has run a 4.3 40-yard dash in Dolphin camp ... In 1983, became first Miami receiver to go over the 1000-yard mark with 1003 on 51 catches (Paul Warfield's 996 in 1971 had been previous high) ... Caught ten touchdown passes and 19.7 per-catch average was tops in AFC and fifth in NFL ... Was a Second Team All-AFC selection by UPI and was a member of the AFC's Pro Bowl squad ... Was rated as #1 receiver in AFC and #2 in NFL by Sportsgram's computer rating system (behind Eagles' Mike Quick) ... In first NFL start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (10/9/83), had second best receiving day in Dolphin history with 202 yards on seven catches (63, 48-yard TDs) ... Gained 134 yards on five receptions against Rams (10/30/83) and earned game ball with 121 yards on five cradlings in 37-0 shutout of Colts (11/20/83) ... In that Colt game, caught 85-yard-TD from Dan Marino that was second longest pass play in club annals behind 86-yard hook-up in 1971 between Bob Griese and Warfield ... Nine catches for 117 yards (one TD) was second-best in Miami playoff history ... Saw action in only two games in rookie campaign of '82 and did not catch a pass ... Was slowed by ankle and hamstring injuries ... Second round draftee, 52nd player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Played only two years of college football at Northwestern State in Natchitoches, Louisiana ... As a senior, caught 24 passes for 592 yards (24.7 average) and seven touchdowns, including three TDs versus Northeast Louisiana ... Attended college on a track scholarship ... At N.W. State, had a 4.28 clocking in 40-yard dash ... Ran anchor leg on Demons' star-studded NCAA championship 400-meter relay team that also consisted of the late Joe Delaney (Kansas City Chiefs), Victor Oatis (Cleveland Browns), and Mario Johnson ... Also qualified for NCAA meet in 100-meter dash ... Broke Delaney's school record in 100 meters with time of 10.21 ... Majored in law enforcement.

PERSONAL: Splits residence between Miami and Mansura, Louisiana with son Mark Jr. (4/19/85) ... A surprise draftee, had impressed Dolphin Head Coach Don Shula in BLESTO workout in Detroit with acrobatic, over-the-shoulder catch ... Hobbies include boating and playing golf ... Lists favorite TV show as "Knight Rider," favorite movie as "Beverly Hills Cop," and favorite book as "Giant Steps" (autobiography of Kareem Abdul-Jabaar) ... Enjoys listening to Stevie Wonder ... 1984: Started all 16 regular season games for Dolphins at left guard position... Also started Miami's three post-season contests... Despite first season as a starter, was selected by peers as an alternate for AFC Pro Bowl squad... Was member of offensive line that allowed the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL (14)... Was awarded the starting job in pre-season following career-ending eye injury to Bob Kuechenberg in training camp.

PRO: Mixture of speed and strength has been responsible for emergence as solid offensive lineman... Amazingly, is the first alumnus of USC to ever play for Dolphins... After shuttling between tackle and guard positions, remained at guard beginning in '83... Played in all 16 games that season on special teams, on the line, and occasionally at tight end in short yardage situations... Made first professional start for injured Eric Laakso (9/19/83) against Raiders in Los Angeles Coliseum, site of collegiate home games... Saw action in 13 regular season and post-season matches in '82, mostly on special teams... First round draftee, 24th player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter at guard for USC... As a senior, earned All-America accolades from UPI, Football Writers, Football Coaches Association, and Sporting News... A finalist for Outland Trophy, played in Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl... Blocked for a pair of Heisman Trophy winners in Charles White and Marcus Allen during Trojan career... Originally recruited to USC as a fullback, then shifted to offensive line... USC offensive lines featuring infamous "Student Body Right" have also produced All-Americans Pat Howell, Brad Budde, and Keith Van Horne... Majored in public administration.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Miami... Hobbies include playing cards, traveling, and listening to music... Enjoys listening to Whispers... Lists favorite TV show as "Dynasty"... Is a big fan of comedy films... Attended Shawnee Mission (Kan.) West High School for two years after moving from Los Angeles... Lettered in football and track... 1984: Played only two games in '84 due to season-ending injury in September 9 game versus New England ... In that contest, suffered torn interior cruciate ligaments and torn medial cartilage in left knee on hit by Patriots' Lester Williams ... Underwent surgery on September 11 ... Spent off-season continuing rehabilitation ... In Miami's season-opening 35-17 victory at Washington, gained 48 yards on 13 attempts ... In only other appearance, rushed seven times for 26 yards against New England.

PRO: A tough, dependable runner, gained over 700 yards in each of three healthy campaigns ... Was team's leading rusher in both '82 and '83 ... Had a career-high eight rushing touchdowns to go along with 746 yards on the ground in '83, but surprisingly did not catch a pass ... In first two games of season, gained 75 yards in win at Buffalo (9/4/83) and 74 yards and two TDs in triumph over New England (9/11/83) ... Severely bruised both shoulders on freak hit while scoring touchdown against Kansas City (9/25/83), missed the following week's game, and was bothered by that injury for remainder of season ... Had outstanding 1982 season, being named to the Pro Bowl and also earning Second Team All-AFC honors from UPI ... Finished second behind New York's Freeman McNeil in AFC rushing with 701 yards on 177 carries and seven TDs, prompting club Most Valuable Player award in voting by South Florida media ... '82 rushing total in strike season projected over normal 16-game schedule would have been 1246 yards ... in 1981, broke Jim Kiick's team rookie rushing record of 621 yards (1968) by running for 711 yards on 201 tries and seven touchdowns ... Replaced injured Woody Bennett in third game of '81, and caught three-yard TD pass from Don Strock that beat Houston, 16-13 ... Scored four touchdowns in first pair of NFL starts, and racked up first 100-yard game against Baltimore on November 1 ... Was honored by South Florida media as team's top rookie ... Second round draftee, 56th player in 1981 (fourth fullback).

COLLEGE: Had fine career at the University of Nebraska, being utilized primarily as a blocking back ... During Cornhusker tenure, Nebraska posted records of 9-3, 9-3, 10-2, and 10-2 ... Gained 543 and 678 yards in final two collegiate seasons, thus totaling 1,738 yards on 324 carries (5.4 average) and ten TDs at Nebraska ... Gained 122 yards against both Missouri and Oklahoma as a senior when 'Huskers ranked second in nation in total offense with 491.2 yards per-game ... Earned Second Team All-Big Eight honors from AP and UPI that season ... Was blocking back for 1,000-yard Nebraska runners Rick Berns, I.M. Hipp, and Jarvis Redwine ... 1984: Signed by the Dolphins this past April 4 to compete for team's placekicking job... Had been released by Green Bay Packers following seventh game of '84 season... Spot on Packer roster was taken by '84 Dolphin try-out Al Del Greco... Scored 23 points for Green Bay in seven games... Converted 14 of 15 PAT attempts and three of nine field goal tries... All three successful field goals were from 38 yards or further... Those three FGs included a 38-yarder in Packers' 24-23 opening day win over St. Louis, a 41-yarder and a Green Bay season-high 51-yarder in team's 30-27 OT loss at Tampa Bay... Is especially strong on kickoffs.

PRO: Is a soccer-style kicker... Backed up Jan Stenerud during 1983 season... Did not attempt an extra point or field goal that year, but did handle kickoffs from fifth game through end of season... Assumed kickoff duties to help ease strain on Stenerud's arthritic ankle... Helped Packers' kickoff coverage team finish third in NFC... Had converted both FG attempts in '83 pre-season including a Lambeau Field record 55-yard boot... Spent the entire 1982 campaign on injured reserve after suffering severe muscle pull in kicking leg during pre-season... In one pre-season appearance against Raiders, was accurate on 50-yard FG... Tenth round draftee, 264th player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed record-setting, four-year career at Southern Methodist... Finished as the top kicking scorer in Mustang history with 262 points on 44 of 67 FGs and 130 of 136 PATs... Established 14 different SMU records including most consecutive PATs (84) and most consecutive FGs (10)... Was All-Southwest Conference in 1981 senior season, finishing second in conference scoring with 91 points (trailed teammate and current Rams star Eric Dickerson who had 114)... Had 18 field goals that year to break own school record, including conference seasonal best 52-yarder... Was selected to play in Senior Bowl and kicked field goals of 55 and 38 yards in that all-star contest... As a junior, led the conference in scoring (67 points) and was an All-SWC choice... Kicked three-pointers of 42, 44, and 42 yards in Holiday Bowl that year... Majored in business.

PERSONAL: Married to Jill (3/23/85), couple resides in Miami Lakes... Hobbies include soccer and short wave radio... Has spent several summers working at soccer camps... Lists favorite athlete as Pele... Attended Wilson High School in Dallas, lettering in football and soccer... Was all-district and all-metro as a senior (1977), and was also All America in soccer... Played on Dallas Jets Under-16 soccer team that won U.S. Southern regional championship... Full name is Edgar Ivan Garcia, born April 15, 1960 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

1984: Continued towards goal of being one of the top offensive tackles in AFC... Started all regular season games for fourth consecutive year (plus three post-season matches)... Was selected as an AFC Pro Bowl alternate and was chosen by UPI as Second Team All-AFC... Was a key reason why Miami allowed the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for the second straight season (14)... Personally, allowed only one sack and had just two holding penalties in '84.

PRO: Very strong player, is equally adept at run or pass blocking... Started all 16 games in '83 as Dolphins permitted just 23 QB drops, fewest in the league... Started all 13 regular season and playoff games in 1982 as Dolphins reached Super Bowl XVII... Earned a game ball for efforts in stopping Jets' "Sack Exchange" without a QB drop in Miami's 45-28 victory on September 12, 1982... Teamed with Eric Laakso to give Dolphins top tackle tandem since Doug Crusan and Norm Evans... Saw action as starter in 17 total games in 1981... In 1980, suffered shoulder separation in New Orleans pre-season scrimmage and was placed on injured reserve until mid-October... First pro start came in 17-14 edging of Buffalo on October 19, 1980, helping Dolphin runners to gain a then-season high 149 yards against NFL's leader in total defense... Remained a fixture in starting lineup from that game on... Appeared in all 16 games in rookie campaign of 1980 with no starts as Bob Kuechenberg played left tackle spot... First round draftee, 24th player in 1979 (third offensive lineman).

COLLEGE: Standout offensive lineman for Bo Schembechler at the University of Michigan... Earned All-Big Ten honors as a senior, and was also AP and Sporting News Honorable Mention All-America... In final two collegiate seasons, Wolverines posted pair of 10-2 seasons... A native of Ohio, UM captured three straight victories over Ohio State during final three years at Ann Arbor school... Won team's "Mr. Hustle" award in 1979... Has a B.S. in education.

PERSONAL: Married to Lori (6/30/79), couple lives in Cooper City, Florida with daughters Kristin (11/1/81) and Melissa (10/21/84)... Ironically, both children were born on Dolphin game days, Kristin while Miami was beating Baltimore 27-10 in the Orange Bowl, and Melissa when the Dolphins won at New England 44-24... Hobbies include playing golf and fishing... Lists favorite TV show as "Miami Vice" and favorite movie as "Romancing The Stone"... Enjoys listening to Foreigner... Attended Woodville (Ohio) High School, lettering in football, track, and basketball... Was Ohio state champion in shot put as a junior with 58'5" toss, bettering mark to 60'10" in senior season... Raised in same Ohio county (Sandusky) as Dolphin teammate Bob Brudzinski... Full name is Jon William Giesler, born December 23, 1956 in Toledo, Ohio.

1984: Got first chance to be a regular in 1984 and did not disappoint... Saw action in all 16 games for Dolphins and had 12 starts (also started all three playoff contests)... Became starting right tackle in game #5 following September 23 season-ending knee injury to Eric Laakso... In two confrontations with Jets' Mark Gastineau, held NFL's premier defensive lineman to just one quarterback sack... Steady play under fire helped Miami offensive line to allow the fewest QB sacks in the NFL (14) last year.

PRO: Has been the Dolphins' top reserve on the offensive line since beating the odds to make club as free agent in 1979... Also has been utilized extensively on special teams... Appeared in all 17 Miami matches in 1983 with one start (11/13 vs. Patriots) for injured Eric Laakso... In 1982, saw action in three regular season games plus all four playoff contests including Super Bowl XVII... Bothered by knee injury in '81, played only six games that year... Started first three matches of 1980 campaign at left tackle before being placed on injured reserve for four games with broken hand... As a free agent in 1979, made the team despite switch from defensive lineman to offensive lineman in the middle of training camp... Appeared in all 16 games in rookie season of '79... Has continued to improve while learning blocking techniques of offensive lineman.

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter at defensive end at Southern University... Selected to play in Black All-Star game following senior season, but chose not to participate... Notched 34 quarterback sacks and averaged over 100 tackles in final two seasons of college ball... Was thought to be a junior by pro scouts following 1978 season due to mixup in eligibility status... Had played briefly on special teams in '75, thus was deemed ineligible for 1979... NCAA ruling came too late to inform pro teams of draft eligibility, but college coach arranged tryout with former Miami assistant coach Bill Arnsparger... Has degree in plant and soil science from Southern.

PERSONAL: Married to Wanda (8/27/78), along with son Kendric (1/14/79), splits residence between Miami and Bolton, Mississippi... Has spent the past several off-seasons doing recreational work with Miami area youngsters... Is the scoring star of the Dolphins' off-season basketball team... Hobbies include reading, chess, golf, and basketball... Favorite movie is "Rocky II" and favorite TV show is "Dallas"... Attended Hinds County Agricultural High School in Utica, Mississippi, lettering in football and basketball... Youngest of ten children, was raised on a farm near Bolton... In 31-7 victory at Pittsburgh, caught first TD pass since '82 regular season finale ... Had four snags for 50 yards in 34-28 OT loss at San Diego on November 18 ... The next week, earned game ball with career-high six receptions for 51 yards and two touchdowns (also a career high) in 28-17 Dolphin win over the Jets ... Second scoring catch in that game (12 yards) was Dan Marino's 36th touchdown pass of the season that tied the all time NFL record ... Caught a TD pass in each of Miami's final two regular season games, versus Indianapolis and Dallas ... In 31-10 playoff win over Seattle on December 29, caught three balls for 25 yards and one score ... Along with Dan Johnson and Joe Rose, Dolphin tight end production included 74 receptions for 878 yards and ten touchdowns.

PRO: Steady player, is a reliable receiver and tough blocker. ... Has missed just one regular season game (10/9/83) in seven Dolphin seasons ... Eight starts in '83 usually came when Miami began game in double TE alignment ... Had 22 catches, including at least one in last nine regular season matches ... In strike-shortened 1982 season, had 12 catches for 88 yards and two TDs, both against the Colts ... Six receptions in '82 post-season play included pair of scoring receptions versus New England in 28-13 Miami win ... In 1981 season, had five catches for 89 yards in 41-38 OT playoff loss to San Diego ... 50-yard touchdown reception in that game is longest-ever scoring hook-up involving a Dolphin tight end ... Appeared in all 16 games in 1980, making 12 starts ... Statistically, had best season in 1979 with 30 receptions for 386 yards and three TDs ... Won starting job in pre-season that year when regular TE Andre Tillman suffered broken leg ... Actually took two snaps from center as quarterback against Chicago (9/23/79) when all three Miami QBs were injured ... In rookie season of 1978, special teams talents in addition to receiving skills paved way for roster spot ... Had 20 tackles, including ten solos on special teams, and also was part-time snapper on punts in '78 ... Two of first four pro receptions went for touchdowns ... Ninth round draftee, 247th player in 1978.

COLLEGE: Originally went to Arizona State as a quarterback, starting opening game of sophomore season at QB (5 for 11 for 67 yards) before being shifted to receiver ... Overall, three-year receiving stats at ASU show 47 catches for 547 yards, including 19 receptions for 269 yards in senior season ... Was college teammate of Green Bay star receiver John Jefferson ... Appearance in Can-Am Bowl was tip-off to Dolphin scouts ... Majored in business administration.

1984: Achieved national publicity in '84 by playing quarterback, wide receiver, tight end, punt snapper, and on special teams at various times... During early part of season, was subject of feature stories in Sports Illustrated, Sporting News, and graced the cover of PRO!... Overall, played in 16 games (plus three playoff games) with two starts... Despite being listed officially as a wide receiver, beat out Dean May for third-string QB job by completing 11 of 18 passes for 186 yards with no interceptions in pre-season... As a wide-out, finished season with 13 receptions for 139 yards and two scores... Also contributed ten solo tackles on special teams... Best game of career came in Miami's 35-17 season-opening win at Washington... Started that game (first NFL start) and caught five balls for 40 yards and pair of TDs (6, 11 yards)... Those touchdowns were the first of four-year NFL career... The following week in 28-7 triumph over New England, threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Mark Duper on flea-flicker... Ironically, was first career TD pass in regular season game despite three years as a league quarterback.

PRO: An excellent athlete, versatility is considered by Head Coach Don Shula to be a throw-back to earlier NFL era... Filled role of special teams "headhunter" in '83... Was moved from quarterback to wide receiver early that season due to good hands plus QB trio of Dan Marino, David Woodley, and Don Strock that promised to limit playing time... Made first appearance as receiver versus Jets (10/16/83)... Threw only one pass as a quarterback in a regular season game (incomplete vs. Colts, 1/2/83)... In '82 pre-season, completed 19 of 29 passes for 262 yards and two touchdowns... Had total of four tackles in regular season and playoff action that year... Notched 14 special teams tackles, including nine solos in rookie campaign of '81... In first pre-season, connected on four of nine passes for 26 yards, and also had a 60-yard run on a QB draw ... Beat out Brad Wright, Miami's fourth round draft choice in '81, for third quarterback slot on roster ... Eleventh round draftee, 293rd player in 1981.

COLLEGE: Had outstanding collegiate career at Boston University ... Helped lead Terriers to two-year mark of 17-3-1 (1979-80), which was best in school's history ... Career totals show 217 completions in 433 attempts (50.1%) for 2,740 yards and 17 touchdowns ... Also rushed for 569 yards on 258 carries with 13 TDs ... As a senior, broke 30-year-old school record of Harry Agganis with 119 completions on 215 passes (55.3%) for 1,544 yards and 11 TDs, plus 254 yards rushing (five TDs) for total offense figure of 1,798 yards ... Led BU to Yankee Conference title that season and was named that conference's Offensive Player of the Year ... An All-New England choice, was selected to play in the Senior Bowl ... Also played volleyball for Terriers ... Holds B.S. in special education.

PERSONAL: Single, lives in Pembroke Pines ... Spent off-season working part-time as a model ... Also donated time to Special Olympics, United Way, and March of Dimes ... Has brother Steve who was a catcher in Pittsburgh Pirates' organization and brother Tom who played football at Villanova ... Hobbies include foreign cars and playing the guitar and harmonica ... Lists favorite TV show as "20/20," favorite movie as "The Natural," and favorite book as George Plimpton's "One More July" ... Enjoys listening to Bruce Springsteen and Phil Collins ... Funniest football incident occurred when "moonied" by entire offensive line upon approach to line of scrimmage during first Dolphin workout ... Attended Central Bucks West High School in Doylestown, Pennsylvania, lettering in football, baseball, and volleyball ... Was a high school All-America while leading team to 22-0-1 record ... Full name is James Christopher Jensen, born November 14, 1958 in Abington, Pennsylvania.

1984: For second year in a row, started all 16 games for Dolphins at tight end ... Had missed the last three pre-season games with two cracked ribs suffered versus Colts on August 4 ... Was hampered for entire season by that injury and was forced to wear flak jacket for much of campaign ... Overall, caught 34 balls for 426 yards and three touchdowns plus three for additional 28 yards and one score in post-season play ... Caught total of six passes for 91 yards in Miami back-to-back wins against Patriots and Bills ... Enjoyed most productive day of season in 44-24 victory at New England on October 21 with career-best 73 yards on career-best-tying five receptions and one touchdown ... Had catches that set up Dolphins' first two scores in that game ... Earned a game ball along with fellow TE Bruce Hardy in 28-17 win over Jets on November 26 with two grabs, one for a score ... Contributed four catches in loss to Raiders on December 2 ... Had just one catch in win at Indianapolis, but it was for career-high 42 yards just after halftime and fueled Dolphin comeback (Miami had trailed 17-7) ... Entire playoff offensive stats came in Super Bowl (3/28 yards), including Miami's only touchdown of the day (2 yards) ... Along with Miami's other two tight ends, Hardy and Joe Rose, produced 74 catches for 878 yards and ten TD's from TE position.

PRO: Viewed by Dolphin coaches as the complete tight end package, can run, catch, and block ... Won starting job with impressive pre-season performance in 1983 ... Finished fifth in club receiving with 24 catches for 189 yards and four touchdowns ... In home opener against New England (9/11/83), recorded first NFL regular season reception (for 33 yards), then snagged first league TD on same drive ... Had career-best-tying five receptions for 42 yards in regular season finale versus Jets (12/16/83) ... Had disappointing "rookie" season in 1982 ... Developed severe shin splints and was placed on injured reserve, remaining there for the entire season ... Seventh round draftee, 170th player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Attended Iowa State as a transfer student ... In senior season of 1981, caught 21 passes for 290 yards for the 5-5-1 Cyclones ... Was given look at fullback in '81 spring drills, but shoulder separation shelved experiment ... Highlight of senior campaign was key 44-yard reception in 23-12 victory over Rose Bowl-bound (and arch-rival) Iowa ... Top statistical game for Iowa State included five catches for 66 yards against San Diego State ... Bothered by ankle injury in junior year, still managed 76-yard touchdown in 69-0 whipping of Colorado State ... Had transferred to Iowa State from Golden Valley Lutheran, a Minnesota junior college ... Set career records there with 59 receptions for 1,033 yards and 13 touchdowns ... Majored in industrial education.

PERSONAL: Married to Kirsten (2/20/82), makes home in Pembroke Pines with son Joshua (7/11/82) ... Has brother Duke who played professional hockey ... Hobbies include fishing, hunting, and playing softball ... Favorite movie is "Cool Hand Luke" and favorite TV show is "All-Star Wrestling" ... Enjoys listening to Michael Jackson ... Nickname is "Bomber" ... Attended Cooper High School in New Hope, Minnesota, lettering in football, track, and hockey ... 1984: Was a Dolphin starter in all 16 regular season games (plus three playoff games) at right cornerback... For the second consecutive season, was voted Miami's Outstanding Defensive Back by South Florida media... Contributed 46 total tackles (41, 5), four interceptions, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, and a team-leading 17 passes defended... Also had pair of blocked field goal attempts versus Jets November 4 and against Indianapolis December 9... Had 121 interception return yards, 69 of which came on laterals from other defensive backfield members... Had key interception of Joe Theismann aerial with 40-yard return that set up Miami TD in team's 35-17 win at Washington on opening day... Against New England, scored only touchdown of league career, running 60 yards on lateral following interception and 26-yard return by Mike Kozlowski... That play was second longest interception return in Dolphin history (Dick Anderson's 96-yarder vs. New England, 11/24/68 was longest)... In 31-7 triumph at Pittsburgh on October 7, had interception of Mark Malone pass to go along with four solo tackles and six passes defended (team high in '84)... Had four solos and recovered Tony Collins fumble that led to final Dolphin TD in 44-24 win at New England on October 21... In loss to L.A. Raiders on December 2, intercepted pass and returned it 23 yards to L.A. six to set up Dolphin score... Also had clutch interception of Danny White pass in end zone during scoreless first quarter of Miami's December 17 victory over Dallas... In AFC title game, contributed four solo stops and had end zone pick-off of Malone pass on Steelers' opening drive of game (34-yard return).

PRO: Solid mixture of speed and coverage ability has led to starter's spot in Miami secondary... Won starting CB job for '83 campaign following season-ending Achilles injury to Don McNeal... Won team Outstanding Defensive Back honors that year, leading the team in interceptions (6) and passes defended (12), and finishing second in solo tackles (69, 82 total)... First NFL career interception came off a Bill Kenney pass in win over Chiefs (9/25/83) to earn game ball... Career highlight came in win over Jets (10/16/83) with three interceptions of Richard Todd passes, all in the second quarter... Thefts occurred on first and last plays of second stanza, plus one in between, and were part of Miami club record six interceptions that day... In '83 playoff loss to Seattle, chipped in with eight solos, three passes defended, and a blocked field goal... Appeared in all nine regular season plus four playoff games in strike-shortened 1982... Used only on special teams, had five total tackles in those 13 matches... Spent the entire 1981 season on injured reserve after suffering torn hamstring in pre-season finale versus Kansas City... Possesses excellent speed and upper body strength... Eighth round draftee, 209th player in 1981.

1984: Played in all 19 regular season and playoff games for Dolphins, primarily as nickel back ... Seasonal stats included 27 solos, eight assists, one interception, one forced fumble, and two passes defended ... Added additional seven tackles in post-season play ... Also returned pair of kick-offs for 23 yards and four punts for 41 yards (10.3 average) ... In September 9 28-7 win versus New England, intercepted Steve Grogan pass and returned it 26 yards before lateraling to William Judson who returned ball additional 60 yards for touchdown ... 86-yard play was second longest interception return in Miami annals behind Dick Anderson's 96-yarder (11/24/68) ... Helped preserve 21-17 Dolphin victory on September 17 at Buffalo by stripping ball from WR Byron Franklin at the Miami 38-yard line late in fourth quarter ... Tied for team lead in total tackles (5) in 31-7 thumping at Pittsburgh October 7 ... In Bills' rematch on October 28, returned John Kidd punt 20 yards to set up Dan Marino to Dan Johnson TD pass (also had four solos).

PRO: A tough, aggressive player ... Used as situational player and special teamer through most of career ... In 1983, had two interceptions plus only quarterback sack of career against Buffalo (10/9/83) ... The following week against Jets, actually played weak-side linebacker in revamped 4-3 defense with Miami short on LBs due to injuries ... Career highlight came in '83 regular season finale against Jets (12/16/83/), intercepting two Richard Todd passes and returning both for touchdowns (35, 38 yards) in a span of just 61 seconds ... Thus became only 13th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat ... Ironically, last time Dolphins had two interception returns for TDs in the same game was also versus Todd and the Jets (9/12/82, Don McNeal and Glenn Blackwood) ... Played in all 1982 regular season and playoff games in Dolphins' drive to the Super Bowl ... Contributed 21 total tackles, two fumble recoveries, two passes defended, a QB sack, and an interception in '82 ... In 9-7 win at Buffalo on November 21, had interception for 36-yard return and fumble return for 30 yards ... In 1981, had three aerial thefts and 39 total tackles ... Managed pair of interceptions in AFC East title game versus Buffalo won by Dolphins 16-6 (12/19/81) ... Returned Sam Cunningham fumble 25 yards for touchdown in 24-14 win over New England (12/6/81) ... Spent entire 1980 campaign on injured reserve with a severely sprained left ankle ... In rookie season of 1979, played mostly on special teams before taking over for injured Glenn Blackwood as nickel back for final five games ... Only NFL start was in that year's regular season finale versus Jets, subbing for an injured Tim Foley ... Had cemented spot on '79 roster with pair of interceptions in pre-season win over Minnesota ... Was first-ever Dolphin rookie to make transition from college running back to NFL defensive back ... Originally wore jersey #37, but yielded it to Andra Franklin to take #40, which was worn by fellow Colorado alumnus Dick Anderson ... Good combination of speed and strength, also possesses 38" vertical jump ... Tenth round draftee, 272nd player in 1979.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons as a running back at University of Colorado ... Gained 239 yards on 61 carries as a senior and 165 yards on 40 rushes as a junior ... Participated in Challenge Bowl in 1979, an all-star contest between the Big Eight and Pacific Ten ... Rebounded from dislocated elbow as a senior after doctor advised that football career was over ... Twice suffered punctured lung in '77, but returned against Iowa State with 42-yard TD run and 53-yard halfback option scoring toss ... In 1976, earned All-State (Cal.) JuCo honors at Mira Costa Junior College with 1,100 yards rushing ... Spent '75 winter semester at Brigham Young ... Attended San Diego State in 1974 on a volleyball scholarship.

PERSONAL: Married to Kristy (6/25/76), couple lives in Plantation with daughters Kemery (11/26/77), Brynn (5/25/79), and Jordan (2/4/83) ... During season, is part-time morning deejay on WAIA-FM ... Has brother Glen who is a wide receiver at Brigham Young ... Comes from unusual heritage, father is Polish and mother is Samoan ... Hobbies include skiing, scuba diving, wind surfing, tennis, and volleyball ... Attended San Dieguito High School in Encinitas, California, lettering in football, basketball (MVP), track, and volleyball ... Full name is Michael John Kozlowski, born February 24, 1956 in Newark, New Jersey.

1984: Started first four games of regular season at right tackle before suffering season-ending knee injury ... Had played in pre-season and early season games with torn thumb ligaments, incurred against Minnesota on August 11 ... Against Indianapolis on September 23, suffered torn cartilage and ligaments in knee ... Underwent immediate surgery and was placed on injured reserve ... Was continuing to rehabilitate in 1985 mini-camp.

PRO: Had really begun to emerge as top offensive lineman before injury, having been a Sporting News All-Pro pick in 1983 ... Very intelligent player, has developed into rugged blocker ... Was key member of Dolphin offensive line that allowed the fewest QB sacks in the NFL in '83 (23) ... Missed two starts that season, versus Raiders due to groin injury (9/19/83, Cleveland Green) and against New England because of knee problem (11/13/83, Cleveland Green) ... Missing Raiders' match snapped 48-game consecutive start streak ... With fellow tackle Jon Giesler, ranks with Doug Crusan/Norm Evans combination as one of the top tackle tandems in club history ... Started every game in strike season of 1982 ... Along with Giesler, was awarded game ball in '82 opener versus Jets for holding New Yorkers without a QB sack ... Became full-time starter in 1980 season... Spent 1978 and '79 seasons as guard/tackle swingman, spelling Larry Little and Mike Current... Was on injured reserve for two months in '79 due to ankle injury, but returned to start pair of games for injured Little... Is the only player in Dolphin history whose first NFL start came in a playoff game (versus Houston 12/12/78)... Fourth round draftee, 106th player in 1978.

COLLEGE: Was Honorable Mention AP All-America as offensive lineman at Tulane as a senior... Also earned All-South Independent honors... Attended Tulane after Green Wave recruiter Tony Misita visited home in Connecticut during winter and agreed to observe Finnish custom of jumping into ice-covered pond after sauna... Recruiters from Pittsburgh and Boston College refused the stunt... Has B.S. in geology.

PERSONAL: Married to Debbi (7/4/81), couple resides in Cooper City with son Shane (6/19/83)... Spent off-season as public relations coordinator for Pineapple Park Townhouse Community in Tamarac... Also donated time to Citizens for Children Foundation and Ronald McDonald House, as well as studying for a general contractor's license... Father Olavi played professional soccer in Finland... 1984: Performed in all 16 regular season games for Dolphins (plus three playoff games) with six starts... Started game #s 9-14 following knee injury to regular left cornerback Don McNeal at New England on October 21... Statistically, finished with 45 total tackles (40, 5), three interceptions, one fumble recovery, and 12 passes defended... Had perhaps finest game of season in first start in October 28 38-7 win over Buffalo, allowing just one pass to be completed in his zone... Also had four tackles, a fumble recovery, and 22 yards gained on a lateral following Robert Sowell interception in that game... The following week, in 31-17 triumph at N.Y. Jets, contributed interception of Pat Ryan pass in addition to leading the team in solo tackles with six... Against Philadelphia on November 11, set up Dolphins' go-ahead touchdown with pickoff of Ron Jaworski pass that eventually led to Pete Johnson's TD that kept Miami undefeated (11-0)... Chipped in with four solo stops and game-high three passes defended in November 18 loss at San Diego, then added interception of Ken O'Brien pass, three solos, and two bat-downs following week in win over Jets.

PRO: Continues to improve, thanks to world-class speed and athletic ability... Played in all 17 Miami games in 1983, primarily when Dolphins went to six defensive backs and occasionally as a nickel... Made first NFL start in place of injured Gerald Small against Buffalo (10/9/83) and had seven tackles... First NFL interception came off Mike Pagel pass and led to Dolphin TD in win over Colts (10/23/83)... Like all rookies in 1982, development was somewhat slowed due to players' strike... Played in all seven regular season games following resumption of season, notching five solo tackles... Also saw action in all four post-season games in Miami's drive to Super Bowl XVII, with four solos and a single assist... Possesses excellent speed (4.49 in 40-yard dash) and mobility... Third round draftee, 80th player in 1982.

COLLEGE: Starred as defensive back at Penn State... Streak of 20 consecutive starts included '81 Nittany Lion win over Southern California in Fiesta Bowl... Achieved Honorable Mention All-America from Sporting News and Football News as a senior... Overall, had 50 solos and 12 assists in final two Penn State campaigns... Against University of Miami in 1981, had 63-yard interception return, forced a UM fumble, and recovered one... Led Penn State in interceptions as a junior with four... A world-class hurdler, earned fourth place finishes in two consecutive NCAA meets, including 50.06 time in 400-meter intermediate hurdles... Has B.S. in health planning and administration.

PERSONAL: Single, resides in Miami... Hobbies include listening to music and playing golf... Lists favorite TV show as "The Bill Cosby Show"... Attended Farmingdale (N.Y.) 1984: Had absolutely sensational season in 1984... In only second NFL season, shattered several key league passing records... Was named in nationwide poll by CBS and the New York Times as most popular professional football player in America despite that second year status... Sampling of post-season honors included AP NFL Most Valuable Player, AP First Team All-Pro, AFC Pro Bowl starter, UPI First Team All-AFC, Sporting News NFL Player of the Year, and Maxwell Club's Bert Bell Award NFL MVP (all honors listed individually below)... Finished the season as the NFL's leader in pass attempts (564), completions (362), yards (5084), average gain per pass attempt (9.0), percentage TDs per attempt (8.5), touchdown passes (48), and QB efficiency rating (108.9)... Overall, set 11 team and five league records... 5084 yards passing eclipsed the old NFL mark of 4802 set by Dan Fouts of San Diego in 1981... 48 touchdown passes shattered the prior league standard of 36 held by George Blanda (Houston, 1961) and Y.A. Tittle (N.Y. Giants, 1963)... 362 completions bettered Fouts' 1981 mark of 360... Overall, had nine games of 300 or more yards passing and four games of 400 or more yards (regular season only) to break two additional NFL records... Including playoffs, has thrown at least one TD pass in Miami's last 23 games... In season-opening 35-17 win at Washington, earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors by completing 21 of 28 passes

(75%) for 311 yards and career-best five touchdowns... Connected on 26 of 35 (74.3%) for 296 yards and three scores in September 17 21-17 edging at Buffalo... Suffered only second sub-50% completion day of career against Colts on September 23 (14 of 29, other was 11/13/83 at New England)... In September 30 36-28 triumph at St. Louis, hit on 24 of 36 attempts for 429 yards, three TDs, and no interceptions to again earn AFC Offensive Player of the Week award... Led team to club record 552 yards of total offense that day and was sacked for first time since November 28, 1983... Was named NFL Player of the Month for September by Pro Football Writers of America... Had career-best completion percentage (78.1) against Houston on 25 of 32 for 321 yards, three TDs, and no pick-offs as Dolphins won 28-10... Completed 24 of 39 for 316 yards and four touchdowns in October 21 44-24 win at New England, thus breaking Bob Griese's single-season Dolphin record for TD passes in just eight games... In game #9, broke Griese's seasonal team mark for yards passing that had been established in 1968... Was good on 23 of 42 throws for 422 yards and pair of scores while also making TD-saving tackle on Darrol Ray in 31-17 beating of Jets at Giants Stadium... Was on mark on 28 of 41 tosses for 338 yards and pair of scores in team's first loss of year at San Diego November 18... In Jets rematch November 26, threw for season-low 192 yards, but had four TD passes... In loss to Raiders on December 2, set Dolphin records for attempts (57), completions (35), and yards (470)... Again named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for that performance which included four TD tosses (first one to Jimmy Cefalo eclipsed all-time NFL record)... Had another 400-yard game (404) in December 9 35-17 victory at Indianapolis plus four more touchdown passes (all in second half)... Ended regular season by connecting on 23 of 40 for 340 yards and another four TDs in thrilling 28-21 prime time win over Dallas... Set AFC Championship game records by throwing for 421 yards and four scores in 45-28 win over Pittsburgh January 6... In Super Bowl XIX, completed 29 of 50 for 318 yards... Underwent arthroscopic procedure on knee on April 3, 1985.

PRO: After only two seasons, is already considered the top attraction in the NFL... Strong and adept at avoiding the rush, possesses rifle arm with quickest release in the league... Enjoyed unparalleled success for first-year QB in 1983... Earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors, and became the first rookie QB ever voted to start in the Pro Bowl (was unable to play due to knee injury)... Amazingly, accumulated all honors and statistics despite playing only the equivalent of ten games... Miniscule interception rate of 2.0 shattered Bob Griese's 1971 club record of 3.42 and was second in NFL... QB efficiency rating of 96.0 was tops in AFC, thus becoming first rookie quarterback since 1970 merger to lead a conference in passing (fifth in league history)... In relief appearance against Raiders (9/19/83), engineered touchdown drives on first two possessions as an NFL QB with scoring passes to Joe Rose and Mark Duper... Made first professional start in 38-35 OT loss to Buffalo (10/9/83) and completed 19 of 29 for 322 yards and three TDs... Another top '83 game came in 30-14 thumping of Rams (10/30/83) with 25 completions in 38 attempts for 278 yards and pair of TDs... At one point of season, threw 95 passes without an interception, and tossed just three pick-offs in 242 passes... Suffered left knee sprain on fourth quarter scramble at Houston (12/4/83) and missed last two regular season games (Don Strock quarterbacked Dolphins to win in both)... With knee brace, returned to complete 15 of 25 in playoff loss to Seattle (12/31/83)... Underwent arthroscopic procedure on knee six days later... First round draftee, 27th player (sixth quarterback) in 1983.

COLLEGE: Had a record-setting career at the University of Pittsburgh from 1979-82... In four seasons at Pitt, completed 693 of 1204 passes (57.5%) for 8,597 yards, 79 touchdowns, and 69 interceptions... Is Panthers' record-holder in passing yards for season (2876 in 1981) and career (8597); in passes attempted and completed for season (226 of 380 in 1981) and career (693 of 1204); and in touchdown passes for season (37 in 1981) and career (79)... Is also school's all-time total offense leader with 8290 yards compared to 6526 of runner-up Tony Dorsett... Along with Dorsett (Dallas) and Hugh Green (Tampa Bay), is one of only three players to have Pitt jersey retired... On NCAA all-time lists, ranks fifth in passing yardage, fourth in completions, and fourth in TD passes... During tenure at hometown school, Panthers posted records of 11-1, 11-1, 11-1, and 9-3 including four bowl appearances (Fiesta, Gator, Sugar, and Cotton)... In senior season, stats show 221 completions in 378 attempts (58.4%) for 2432 yards, 17 TDs and 23

interceptions, including Pitt's 7-3 Cotton Bowl loss to SMU... Earned All-America honors as a junior and finished fourth in Heisman Trophy balloting... Connected on 226 of 380 attempts (59.5%) for 2876 yards, 37 touchdowns, and 23 interceptions... Was MVP of Sugar Bowl that year for #2 ranked Panthers, completing 26 passes for 261 yards and three TDs in 24-20 edging of Georgia... Led Pitt to Gator Bowl in 1980, completing 116 of 224 throws (51.8%) for 1609 yards, 15 TDs, and 14 interceptions... Became starter midway through freshman season of '79 hitting on 130 of 222 passes (58.6%) for 1680 yards, ten scores, and nine pick-offs... Suffered knee injury versus West Virginia that season, missing three games and later requiring off-season surgery... Has B.A. in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Claire (1/30/85), couple splits time between Miami and Pittsburgh... Success and marketability have led to lucrative endorsement opportunities including contracts with Pepsi-Cola (did well-received TV commercial with 49ers' Joe Montana), Chevrolet, Ryder Truck Rentals, MacGregor Sporting Goods (including Dan Marino football), Pony Sports and Leisure (including Dan Marino line of shoes and athletic clothing), Consolidated Bank, Arvida (real estate development), and Surrey's (men's clothing stores in Florida)... 1984: Sidelined by knee injury, played in 11 games with ten starts (plus three starts in playoff matches) ... Statistics showed 38 total tackles (33, 5), three interceptions, a team-leading three fumble recoveries, one forced fumble, and ten passes defended ... Tied for club lead in tackles with seven in Miami's 35-17 opening day win at Washington, then intercepted Steve Grogan pass the following week versus New England ... In September 23 44-7 romp over Colts, intercepted pass that deflected off Curtis Dickey and returned it 11 yards for a touchdown ... Also had six solo stops, three passes defended and a forced fumble in that game ... Again tied for team lead in tackles in victory at Pittsburgh October 7 ... On October 21 at New England, suffered partial tear of knee ligaments on tackle of Patriots' Stephen Starring on end around ... Did not require surgery, but was placed in cast and missed next five games (Paul Lankford started during that stretch) ... Returned to action against Raiders December 2, and reclaimed starting job the following week at Indianapolis ... Ended regular season with interception and career-high 30-yard return of Danny White throw in 28-21 win over Dallas December 17.

PRO: Unquestioned potential to be one of NFL's top cornerbacks, but has been slowed by continual injuries ... A first-temer since rookie season, has started 44 of 45 games in four-year career ... Spent the entire 1983 campaign on injured reserve with a ruptured Achilles tendon suffered in Orange Bowl pre-season scrimmage (7/30/83) ... In Super Bowl season of '82, led Dolphins in interceptions with four of team's league-leading total of 19 ... Returned interception of Richard Todd pass 19 yards for a TD at New York (9/12/82) ... Also had pair of thefts and 11 passes defended in four post-season contests as Miami advanced to NFL title game ... In '81, had 12 regular season starts, missing three games with a torn hamstring ... In season's 15th match, suffered fractured forearm while attempting to tackle Kansas City's Joe Delaney ... Missed regular season finale, but managed to play in San Diego playoff game despite cast and pin in arm ... Started 13 games in 1980 NFL debut season before sustaining broken wrist and torn thumb ligaments at Pittsburgh ... Had five interceptions that season and was unanimous NFL All-Rookie selection ... Also was first rookie honored by South Florida media as team's Outstanding Defensive Back ... First league start in '80 featured three "take-aways," (interception, tipped pass, and forced fumble) ... Also had two interceptions in loss at New England ... First-ever defensive back drafted by Miami in first round, earned Tommy Fitzgerald Memorial Award as outstanding rookie in 1980 training camp ... First round draftee, 21st player in 1980 (fourth defensive back).

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter for Paul "Bear" Bryant at University of Alabama ... Helped Crimson Tide win pair of national championships in 1978 and '79, and was an All-America as a senior ... Also was named to All-America strength team and runs a 4.5 40-yard dash ... Overall, had 68 solos, 29 assists, seven interceptions, and 29 passes defended while at Alabama ... Played in East-West and Senior Bowl all-star games ... During tenure at 'Bama, team won three consecutive Sugar Bowls, over Ohio State 35-6, Penn State 14-7, and Arkansas 24-9 ... Goal-line tackle of Nittany Lion receiver Scott Fitzkee sealed that win over Penn State for '79 national title ... Blocked two punts in junior season ... Holds B.S. in social welfare.

PERSONAL: Married to Rhonda (7/17/83), couple lives year-round in Miami ... Spent much of off-season counseling children at Miami's Humana Hospital ... Along with teammate Dwight Stephenson, made headlines in June of '84 by helping police capture three men responsible for over 30 break-ins in the Miami area... Prior to September 23 game versus Colts last season, along with Stephenson, was presented with the Silver Medal of Valor (highest honor that can be bestowed upon a civilian) by Miami-Dade Police Department... Grew up on farm, has worked in educational program for children of migrant workers in South Dade fields... 1984: Was most honored NFL punter or placekicker in 1984... Enjoyed banner season despite fewest punts (51) among league regulars... Finished second in NFL with 44.7-yard average, trailing only Kansas City's Jim Arnold at 44.9... That 44.7-yard average eclipsed own Dolphin team record of 43.1 that had been set in 1983... Was first in NFL in net punting average with a mark of 38.1... Many honors (listed separately below) included NFL Alumni Kicker of the Year, AP First Team All-Pro, and being selected to AFC Pro Bowl squad... Had six punts of 60 yards or longer... Averaged career-high 53.0 yards on three boots in 44-7 romp over Indianapolis on September 23... Against Jets on November 4, average of 48.3 included a 63-yarder... In Jets rematch on November 26, averaged 50.6 on five punts, including career-best 69-yarder, plus had two kicks inside the 20... Had solid 46.0 average on six in punts in loss to Raiders on December 2.

PRO: In just two seasons of NFL play, is already recognized as outstanding punter in league... Trademark is high, booming kicks... In rookie season, averaged 43.1-yards per punt to better George Roberts' prior team record of 42.6 (1980)... 43.1 mark was fourth in NFL while 36.5 net average ranked third league-wide... Paced AFC with 27 kicks inside the 20... Post-season honors included Pro Football Weekly and Football Digest All-Rookie Team... Was second alternate for Pro Bowl... Several times hit Superdome scoreboard overhang in warm-ups prior to Dolphin loss at New Orleans (10/2/83)... Suffered only blocked punt of short career against Jets (10/16/83) when Darrol Ray smothered one... Averaged 46.8-yards per kick including '83 season-high 64-yarder in 37-0 Miami shutout of Colts (11/20/83)... In 1983 regular season finale, averaged 46 yards on five boots in prime time win over Jets (12/16/83)... Sixth round draftee, 167th player in 1983.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed record-setting career at the University of Iowa... Considered one of the greatest punters in NCAA history, led the nation in punting in both junior and senior seasons... Overall, punted for nearly four and a half miles in tenure at Iowa... Also handled kickoffs for Hawkeyes... In senior season of 1982, averaged 48.1-yards per kick while earning Second Team All-America honors from UPI and NEA, and being named First Team All-Big Ten... Participated in East-West Shrine all-star game... Had best year as a junior with an NCAA record 49.8-yard average on 44 kicks... Received First Team All-America selection that season from AP and UPI, as well as First Team All-Big Ten honors... Averaged better than 50 yards a punt in eight games in '81 (59.0 vs. Northwestern) and five in '82 (55.3 vs. Michigan)... As a sophomore, averaged 40.6-yards punting and also connected on six of nine extra points and six of 15 field goal attempts... Was runner-up among Big Ten punters as a freshman with 42.6-yard average, but was four punts short of qualifying for eighth place NCAA ranking... Was also placekicker for final nine games of that '79 season, converting 22 of 25 PATs and five of 11 FGs... Was AP Honorable Mention All-America as frosh... Also lettered for Hawkeye baseball team in 1979... Majored in communications.

PERSONAL: Married to Carla (3/31/84), couple spends off-season between Miami and Cedar Rapids, Iowa... 1984: Miami's special teams spark plug, played in all 16 games... For the second time in two-year pro career, paced all special teamers in tackles... Overall, had 20 stops on 17 solos and three assists, one fumble forced, and four passes defended... In pre-season play, led the team in interceptions with three... Contributed three special teams solos in each of two games, versus New England on September 9 and against Philadelphia on November 11... Had only interception of NFL regular season career off a Joe Ferguson pass (7-yard return, lateral to Paul Lankford for additional 22 yards) plus a forced fumble against Buffalo in 38-7 win on October 28... Excelled in playoffs with three solos and one assist in win over Seattle and four solos plus a pass defended in AFC title game triumph over Pittsburgh.

PRO: In 1983, captured imagination of Dolphins and media with unlikely path to roster spot... Gained national publicity with "headhunting" abilities on special teams... Was voted Dolphins' Special Teams Player of the Year in '83 after appearing in all 16 games plus Seattle playoff match... Led club in special teams tackles with 18 solos and two assists for 20 total stops while also chipping in with a forced fumble and a fumble recovery... Had three solos in each of three consecutive games in '83 in victories over Jets, Colts, and Rams... Made first NFL regular season appearance as a defensive back in loss at New England (11/13/83)... Established "timing relationship" with punter Reggie Roby, catching several of Roby's booming punts 50 yards downfield... Kamikazee style coupled with slender physique occasionally caused hyperventilation and two-day rehabilitative period following games... Initially impressed coaches and national TV audience in pre-season win over Washington (8/19/83) by leading team with six tackles (all on special teams)... Head Coach Don Shula called that performance "the best game I've ever seen a player have on special teams."

COLLEGE: Attended Howard University in Washington, D.C. for just one year (1979)... Was forced to leave school after father suffered stroke and family needed additional support... In one season at Howard, was a Second Team All-Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference selection and tied for the league lead in interceptions with five.

PERSONAL: Married to Deenne (3/22/85), couple spends off-season in Columbus, Ohio... After leaving college after one year (1979), was thus not eligible for NFL draft until after class graduated in 1982... Wrote to all professional teams requesting tryout and though five teams responded (Dallas, Detroit, Houston, Miami, and New Orleans), only Dolphins followed up with personal phone call... 1984: Already established as NFL's premier center, continued outstanding play in 1984... Started all 16 games (plus three in playoffs) as anchor of Miami offensive line that allowed fewest quarterback sacks in league for second consecutive season (14)... Was named first-team center on virtually every post-season all-star team... Many honors (listed separately below) included NFLPA Offensive Lineman of the Year, USA Today NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year, AFC Pro Bowl starter, and AP First Team All-Pro... Entering 1985, has started 46 consecutive regular season games and has not missed a contest in 82 total games (including playoffs) since turning pro.

PRO A quick, strong blocker, became full-time starter in 12th game of 1981 season... In '83, really emerged as NFL's best at center position, starting in all 17 games, and earning many honors that included NFLPA Offensive Lineman of the Year, AFC Pro Bowl starter, and AP First Team All-Pro... Was "center of attention" on Dolphin offensive line that allowed fewest QB sacks in NFL in '83 (23)... Started all 13 games in 1982 regular and post-season as Dolphins reached Super Bowl XVII... Was selected to play in the Pro Bowl that season... First NFL start came in '81 after regular center Mark Dennard suffered torn calf muscle in season's 11th game... Miami posted 4-1 record in those final five games and captured AFC East title... Competition with Dennard for starting job in '82 was aborted when current Philadelphia Eagle incurred broken arm... Participated in all 16 games in rookie campaign of 1980... Second round draftee, 48th player in 1980 (third center).

COLLEGE: Enjoyed outstanding career at University of Alabama... Was a three-time All-Southeastern Conference selection... Called the "greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant... Helped Crimson Tide to three consecutive Sugar Bowl victories over Ohio State, Penn State, and Arkansas... During final two seasons at 'Bama, team won 21 straight games and national championships in 1978 and '79... As a senior, was a finalist for Lombardi Award, given annually to nation's outstanding lineman... Participated in both Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine game... Earned Football News First Team All-America and AP and UPI Second Team selection... Had been switched from defensive end to center as a sophomore... Majored in social welfare.

PERSONAL: Married to Dinah (2/27/82), couple lives with son Dwight Jr. (9/11/84) in Miami... NFL 12th Year

1984: Played in all 16 games (plus three post-season games, two briefly at QB), being used as the holder on all placement kicks and as a back-up quarterback... Due to finger injury to Dan Marino, started first three pre-season games (all victories) and completed 24 of 36 passes for 240 yards, three TDs, and two interceptions... In regular season play at QB, connected on four of six attempts for 27 yards... In 38-7 triumph over Buffalo on October 28, completed three of four passes for 24 yards and led team on 12-play, 68-yard drive for Miami's final touchdown of game... Considered by Head Coach Don Shula to have extensive knowledge of team's offensive system, serves as "offensive advisor" on Miami sidelines during games... Also credited with assistance in development of Marino.

PRO: Considered premier back-up quarterback in NFL, could start on several teams... Relishes image as football's Rich "Goose" Gossage, even wears baseball hat and warm-up jacket on sidelines... Missed all of '83 training camp as contract hold-out before signing one day after opening game (9/5/83)... In 15 games (two starts), completed 34 of 52 for 403 yards (65.4%), four TDs, and a QB efficiency rating of 106.7... In first QB action of season (12/4/83), replaced injured Dan Marino in fourth quarter at Houston and pitched out to Tony Nathan for winning TD on first play in game... Started last two regular season games, guiding team to wins over Atlanta (18 of 22 for 229 yards) and N.Y. Jets (16 of 30 for 174 yards)... In that Falcon contest, connected on 11 of 11 in first half, and 81.8% completion rate in game was fourth best in club history... Saw limited playing time in strike-shortened 1982 season, completing 30 of 55 for 306 yards... Almost rescued Miami from 23-17 loss at Tampa Bay (11/29/82) with 17 completions in 34 attempts for 204 yards... Helped Dolphins best Jets (12/18/82) by completing six of six passes for 53 yards to set up winning 47-yard field goal by Uwe von Schamann with three seconds left in game... In 1981, hit on 79 of 130 passes (60.1%) for 901 yards including key relief appearances in wins over Houston, Philadelphia, and Kansas City to help propel Miami to AFC East title ... Relieved David Woodley five times in '81 (once due to injury) and had one start versus Buffalo ... Best-remembered Dolphin performance came on January 2, 1982 in playoff game versus San Diego ... Entered game with Dolphins trailing 24-0 in second quarter and completed then-club record 29 passes in 43 attempts for 403 yards and four touchdowns (Miami lost 41-38 in OT) ... Highlight of 1980 campaign was keying late rally from nine-point deficit to defeat Cincinnati 17-16 ... Suffered concussion in sixth game of '80, and played only a half over remainder of season ... In 1979, quarterbacked the equivalent of three and a half games and produced 109 points (31.1 per game) ... Had been a free agent following both 1979 and '80 seasons ... Enjoyed productive year in 1978 with 72 completions in 135 attempts for 825 yards and 12 scores ... Started first seven games of '78 connecting on 65 of 125 tosses and ten touchdowns as Dolphins posted 5-2 record in that span ... Originally began holding duties in 1978 and had TD pass to Vern Den Herder on fake field goal attempt against Baltimore ... Played sparingly in 1976 and '77, completing 23 of 51 passes during those two seasons ... Started three games in 1975 and first NFL start came December 7 with both Bob Griese and Earl Morrall injured ... Connected on 12 of 15 passes (including 11 in a row) and two touchdowns to beat Buffalo 31-21 in that game ... Spent entire 1973 season on taxi squad ... Fifth round draftee, 111th player in 1973 (seventh quarterback).

COLLEGE: Had outstanding career in pass-oriented offense at Virginia Tech ... Overall, completed 628 passes in 1174 attempts (53.5%) for 8857 yards ... Led the nation in passing as a senior, connecting on 228 of 427 (53.4%) for 3243 yards and 16 touchdowns ... Those numbers included 34 of 53 performance for 527 yards against Houston ... Was voted Outstanding Offensive Player in Blue-Gray game and also participated in the Hula Bowl ... Holds B.S. in distributive education.

PERSONAL: Married to Debby (2/17/79), couple resides year-round in Miami Springs ... During off-season, works as Activities Director for Doral Country Club ... Charity-wise, is involved in March of Dimes, Boy's Club, and Juvenile Diabetes ... Hobby is playing golf ... Lists favorite TV show as "Family Feud," favorite movie as "The Wizard of Oz," and favorite book as "The Other Side of Midnight" ... Enjoys listening to Hall and Oates ... Kicked clutch 47-yard field goal with just three seconds remaining to beat Jets 20-19 (12/18/82)... Suffered hairline fracture of transverse process while recovering San Diego fumble on kickoff in 1/16/83 playoff game... Recovered sufficiently to kick following week in AFC Championship game versus Jets and in Super Bowl XVII... Had been hospitalized with colitis during '82 pre-season and lost more than 20 pounds... Unsure of '82 return, Dolphins paraded kickers through training camp, but eight-week players' strike allowed recovery... Boasted 77.4% field goal conversion rate in 1981 (24 of 31) to lead AFC in that category and hit 15 consecutive FGs from inside the 40... Finished eighth in NFL scoring derby with career best 109 points... Made 30-yard field goal to beat New England 30-27 in overtime (11/8/81) for Head Coach Don Shula's 200th victory... Also had winning field goals to beat Philadelphia (1:04 remaining), Baltimore (1:02 remaining), and Washington (9:34 remaining)... Missed PAT versus Dallas in '81 that snapped streak of 70 consecutive extra points spanning 29 games... Suffered pair of unfortunate missed FG attempts in infamous 41-38 OT playoff loss to Chargers (1/2/82) after having made 18 of previous 20 attempts... Scored 74 points in 1980 including winning FGs against Cincinnati (1:55 remaining), Atlanta (:32 remaining), and New England (overtime)... Was third in AFC in rookie season of 1979 with 72.4% conversion rate on field goals... Had 53-yarder (vs. New England) and 51-yarder (vs. Houston)... RETIRED JERSEY #12

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphin offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first to be retired May 6, 1982 in ceremonies at the Dolphins' annual awards banquet.

He had a .698 winning percentage (91-39-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl, and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by the South Florida media.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula says. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

Orange Bowl crowd of 73,735 comprised fourth sellout of season.
- Sept. 21 — NFLPA calls players' strike with games not resuming until November 21.
- Dec. 12 — In one of the most bizarre incidents in Miami Dolphin history, a work release parolee cleared a space on the snow-frozen New England Patriots' turf that enabled the Patriots to kick a late fourth-quarter field goal and win the game 3-0 before 25,716 fans.
- Dec. 27 — The incredible record of not having won in 16 years in the Orange Bowl continued as the Dolphins scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Buffalo Bills 27-10.

- Jan. 8 — For the first time in nine years, the Dolphins win a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13 before 68,842 fans.
- Jan. 16 — The Dolphins choke off the San Diego Chargers famed offense and defeat them 34-13 before 71,383 fans. The Chargers were held to a total offense of 247 yards, 203 yards below their league-leading average.
- Jan. 23 — A.J. Duhe sets an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one for a 35-yard touchdown romp — as the Dolphins defeat the New York Jets for the third time in one season to win the AFC crown 14-0.

- Jan. 30 — In Pasadena, California, the Dolphins appear in their fourth Super Bowl, and in spite of leading with only ten minutes to play, they lose 27-17 before a sellout crowd of 103,667 and a TV audience estimated at 115 million. Fulton Walker sets a Super Bowl record with a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and he returns four kickoffs for a total of 190 yards.
- Apr. 26 — The Dolphins select quarterback Dan Marino in the first round of the 1983 draft (27th player overall). The drafting of the former University of Pittsburgh All-America marks the first time in Dolphin history that the club has chosen a QB with its initial draft choice.
- June 25 — Starting linebacker Larry Gordon dies of a rare heart disease while jogging in Arizona at the age of 28. Gordon had been the Dolphins' first round draft choice in 1976 out of Arizona State.
- Sept. 4 — Led by six quarterback sacks (four by Doug Betters), the Dolphin defense shuts out the Buffalo Bills 12-0 in the 1983 season opener. 78,715 fans in Rich Stadium see four Uwe von Schamann field goals account for all the scoring.
- Oct. 9 — Quarterback Dan Marino and wide receiver Mark Duper make their first-ever starts for the Miami Dolphins, with Marino passing for 322 yards and Duper netting seven catches for 202 yards. The offensive explosion produces 971 total yards between the Dolphins and Bills, with Buffalo winning the Orange Bowl encounter, 38-35 in overtime.
- Oct. 16 — The Dolphin secondary intercepts six New York Jet passes (three by William Judson in one quarter) to lead Miami to a 32-14 win in the Dolphins' final Shea Stadium appearance. QB Dan Marino completes 17 of 30 passes for 225 yards, 3 TDs, and 0 interceptions.
- Nov. 28 — Dolphin Owner Joseph Robbie announces the signing of Head Coach Don Shula to a multi-year contract.
- Dec. 2 — Bill Arnsparger, the Dolphins' Assistant Head Coach and mastermind of the team's defense, resigns to become the head coach at Louisiana State University. His resignation is effective at the end of the season.
- Dec. 14 — Squads for the 1983 Pro Bowl are announced with six Dolphins being named to the squad (four starters), plus four alternates. Earning places on the team are NT Bob Baumhower, DE Doug Betters, WR Mark Duper, QB Dan Marino, G Ed Newman, and C Dwight Stephenson. The alternates included LB A.J. Duhe, G Bob Kuechenberg (later added to team), P Reggie Roby, and KR Fulton Walker.
- Dec. 16 — With starting QB Dan Marino sidelined for the second consecutive game, relief pitcher Don Strock again steps in to help lead Miami to a 34-14 Orange Bowl win over the Jets. Safety Mike Kozlowski breaks open a close game when he returns two interceptions for touchdowns in a 61-second span in the fourth quarter. WR Mark Duper catches four passes for 71 yards to become the first Dolphin receiver to go over the 1000-yard mark in a single season.
- Dec. 27 — The Dolphins name 54-year-old Chuck Studley as their Defense Coach to replace Bill Arnsparger. Studley had spent the 1983 season as defensive coordinator, and then interim head coach of the Houston Oilers.
- Dec. 31 — Despite winning or sharing the AFC East title for the 11th time in 14 years, the Dolphins see their season and 1983 end on a disappointing note as the Seattle Seahawks beat them 27-20 in a conference semi-final playoff game in Miami.

'84 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME #1 MIAMI 35, WASHINGTON 17

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 2 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's five touchdown passes, defeated the Washington Redskins 35-17 before 52,683 fans at R.F.K. Stadium. Miami broke out on top late in the opening quarter on a six-play, 69-yard drive highlighted by a 15-yard Tony Nathan run and a 20-yard Marino to Jim Jensen pass. The touchdown came on a 26-yard pass play from Marino to Mark Duper. On Washington's ensuing possession, running back John Riggins carried on seven of the nine plays in the Redskins' tying TD drive, eventually scoring on a one-yard run. Later in the second quarter, three Joe Theismann completions for a total of 52 yards led to a 32-yard field goal by Washington's Mark Moseley. The Dolphins took a 14-10 halftime lead when Marino and Duper hooked up on a 74-yard touchdown pass, the seventh longest pass play in Miami annals. The third quarter was all Miami as Marino threw three touchdown passes the first three times his team had possession. Again, the Marino to Duper combination provided the key play, this time resulting in a 46-yard gain. The score came on a six-yard toss to quarterback-turned-receiver Jensen. After Miami's Mark Brown forced a fumble by Joe Washington, Marino completed four passes to four different receivers with the touchdown coming on a leaping nine-yard catch by Clayton. Leading 28-14, Dolphin cornerback William Judson intercepted a Theismann pass and returned it 40 yards to the Redskin seven. Another Marino to Jensen TD pass (four yards) closed out the Dolphin scoring. The Redskins scored once more midway through the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Washington.

GAME #2 MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 7

MIAMI, SEPT. 9 — The Miami Dolphins defeated the New England Patriots 28-7 before 66,083 fans in the Orange Bowl. The win marked the 17th consecutive time that the Dolphins had beaten the Patriots in Miami, and was also the 13th time in 15 tries that a Don Shula-coached Dolphin team has won its home opener. The game was scoreless until midway into the second quarter when Glenn Blackwood intercepted a Steve Grogan pass to set the Dolphins up at their own 45. One play later, Miami scored on a 35-yard flea flicker from Dan Marino to quarterback-turned-wide receiver Jim Jensen to Mark Duper. On the next series, New England tied it when Grogan's nine-yard pass to Lin Dawson culminated a ten-play, 90-yard touchdown drive. The Dolphins went ahead to stay when they scored touchdowns on their first two possessions of the third quarter. Two Marino completions paved the way for a 38-yard scoring toss to Mark Clayton. On the Patriots' next series, wide receiver Cedric Jones fumbled when hit by Miami's William Judson (Charles Bowser recovered), and Marino again connected with Clayton for a touchdown (15 yards) to put the Dolphins ahead 21-7. The scoring ended late in the final quarter when Mike Kozlowski intercepted a Grogan aerial and returned it 26 yards before lateraling to Judson who ran the remaining 60 yards for the touchdown.

ORCHARD PARK, SEPT 17 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 296 yards passing and three touchdowns, defeated the Buffalo Bills 21-17 before 65,455 fans at Rich Stadium. Miami scored first midway through the opening quarter when Marino moved the Dolphins 62 yards in eight plays with the touchdown coming on an 11-yard toss to Mark Duper. After Bob Baumhower blocked a 47-yard field goal attempt by Buffalo's Joe Danelo, the Dolphins extended their lead to 14-0. Three short Marino completions preceded a 12-yard touchdown pass to Clayton. Buffalo got its first points on a 33-yard Danelo field goal with only nine seconds remaining in the first half. The Dolphins final touchdown came on their initial possession of the third quarter when Nat Moore scored his first TD of the '84 season on a one-yard catch of a Marino throw. The score had been set up by a pair of Marino to Duper completions (20, 18 yards). On the Bills' next series, QB Joe Ferguson engineered a 13-play, 80-yard touchdown drive with former University of Miami star Speedy Neal scoring from one yard out. The Bills narrowed their gap to 21-17 in the fourth quarter on a 79-yard drive ending in a 37-yard scoring pass from Ferguson to Julius Dawkins. With Buffalo in Miami territory late in the game, Dolphin safety Mike Kozlowski forced a Byron Franklin fumble with Don McNeal recovering.

GAME #4 MIAMI 44, INDIANAPOLIS 7

MIAMI, SEPT. 23 — The Miami Dolphins, registering their most points scored since September 12, 1982, soundly defeated the Indianapolis Colts 44-7 before 55,415 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first possession of the game moving 82 yards in 12 plays. Key plays in the drive included a 23-yard Dan Marino to Mark Duper pass and a pass interference penalty on the Colts' Tate Randle (intended for Duper) that gave Miami a 28-yard gain. The touchdown came on a one-yard plunge by newly-acquired Pete Johnson. Indianapolis scored their only points on its next series as QB Mike Pagel put together an 80-yard scoring drive including a five-yard TD pass to TE Dave Young. On the second play following the Colts' kickoff, Marino checked off a running play after spotting man-to-man pass coverage and connected on an 80-yard scoring play with Duper. The PAT was missed by Uwe von Schamann, but he came back later in the quarter to connect on a 27-yard field goal. Miami increased its lead to 23-7 late in the first half when Marino hit Duper for a five-yard touchdown. The Dolphins went ahead 30-7 midway through the third quarter when McNeal intercepted a Pagel pass (deflected off Dickey) and returned it 11 yards for the second touchdown of his four-year career. Later in the period, a 37-yard Vince Heflin punt return gave Miami possession at the Colts' 31, and one play later, fullback Woody Bennett scored on a four-yard run. The Dolphins closed out the scoring early in the final quarter as four Joe Carter runs preceded Bennett's one-yard touchdown dive.

GAME #5 MIAMI 36, ST. LOUIS 28

ST. LOUIS, SEPT. 30 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's 429 yards passing, defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 36-28 before 46,991 fans at Busch Stadium. Miami jumped off to a 6-0 first quarter lead on a pair of Uwe von Schamann field goals of 27 and 26 yards. The first three-pointer was set up by a 31-yard Marino to Dan Johnson completion while the Dolphins got in position for the second field goal thanks to a 51-yard hook-up between Marino and Mark Duper. Miami stretched its lead to 12-0 early in the second quarter when the team drove 80 yards in just six plays, scoring on a 26-yard pass from Marino to tight end Joe Rose (PAT blocked). The key play in that touchdown march had been Marino's 42-yard completion to Mark Clayton. The Cardinals got their first points on their next possession on Stump Mitchell's two-yard run. The Dolphins then went 78 yards in just seven plays in a drive that included a Marino 37-yard completion to Clayton before Pete Johnson scored on a one-yard run. St. Louis narrowed Miami's margin to 19-14 with just 1:11 left in the first half when Lomax connected with Marsh for a 22-yard scoring play. However, the quick-striking Marino moved the Dolphins 53 yards in just 51 seconds, throwing a 29-yard TD pass to Clayton to put Miami ahead 26-14 at halftime. The Cardinals had the only points of the third quarter when Earl Ferrell scored on an 11-yard run. Four Marino passes for 49 yards preceded his swing pass to Tony Nathan for a 23-yard touchdown early in the final quarter. The Dolphins stretched their advantage to 36-21 following Don McNeal's recovery of Tilley's fumble (William Judson forced) at the Cardinal 32. Six plays later, von Schamann kicked his third field goal of the day from 27 yards out. Mitchell's four-yard scoring run for the Cards ended the game's scoring.

GAME #6 MIAMI 31, PITTSBURGH 7

PITTSBURGH, OCT. 7 — The Miami Dolphins defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers 31-7 before 59,103 fans in Three Rivers Stadium. The 24 point margin of the Steeler defeat was the most decisive loss by Pittsburgh in the history of their stadium. After a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins scored 21 points in the second period. A ten-play, 69-yard drive featured a pair of Dan Marino to Mark Clayton completions (19, 20 yards) before Marino hit tight end Bruce Hardy with a three-yard touchdown toss. On Miami's next possession, a Marino to Clayton 15-yarder helped set up the second-year quarterback's 34-yard scoring strike to Joe Rose. Late in the half, Dolphin LB Charles Bowser forced a fumble when he sacked Pittsburgh QB Mark Malone. Miami nose tackle Bob Baumhower picked up the loose ball and ran it in for the touchdown from 21 yards out. Midway through the third quarter, the Dolphins increased their lead to 24-0 on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal. The Steelers got their only score of the game on a 14-play, 80-yard drive that included a one-yard TD dive by Frank Pollard. On the ensuing series, Marino keyed a seven-play, 76-yard drive with two completions to Clayton (33, 23 yards). Fullback Woody Bennett's third touchdown of the season closed out the scoring.

MIAMI, OCT. 14 — The Miami Dolphins, led by the pinpoint passing of quarterback Dan Marino, defeated the Houston Oilers 28-10 before 54,080 fans in the Orange Bowl. The only points of the first half came on a 27-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. The eight-play, 77-yard drive included Marino completions to Mark Duper (20 yards) and Jim Jensen (15 yards). The Dolphins extended their lead to 14-0 midway through the third quarter on Duper's seventh touchdown reception of the year, a 17-yarder from Marino. Key plays in the 54-yard drive were Woody Bennett's 19-yard run and a 15-yard Marino to Duper completion. On their ensuing possession, the Oilers moved 48 yards to set up Florian Kempf's 49-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 14-3 at the end of the third quarter. At the beginning of the final period, the Dolphins drove 87 yards in 12 plays that included four Joe Carter runs. The TD came on a 32-yard hook-up between Marino and Nat Moore. On Miami's next possession, Carter broke a 25-yard touchdown run. Houston ended the games scoring on a six-play, 80-yard drive that featured a nine-yard pass from Warren Moon to Chris Dressel.

GAME #8 MIAMI 44, NEW ENGLAND 24

FOXBORO, OCT. 21 — The Miami Dolphins, rolling up a team record-tying 552 yards of total offense, beat the New England Patriots, 44-24 before 60,711 fans at Sullivan Stadium. The Dolphins scored on their first possession as Uwe von Schamann kicked a 28-yard field goal on the 13th play of a 74-yard drive. The Patriots immediately tied it on Tony Franklin's 48-yard field goal, the first points the Dolphins had allowed in the opening quarter this season. Miami again went ahead on its next series as fullback Pete Johnson scored on a one-yard run. With just under two minutes remaining in the first half, three Tony Eason completions for a total of 43 yards led to a 14-yard touchdown pass to Clarence Weathers to knot the score at 10-10. However, Marino then drove Miami 80 yards in 1:49 before connecting with Nat Moore for the touchdown (19 yards, PAT blocked). Miami scored touchdowns on all four of its second half possessions, opening the third quarter with a 13-play, 80-yard scoring drive. Key plays in the TD march included a 30-yard reverse by Clayton and a 19-yard Marino to Jimmy Cefalo pass. The score came on Dan Johnson's first touchdown of 1984, a five-yard reception. Trailing 23-10, New England cut into Miami's margin on its next play as Eason connected with Stanley Morgan for a 76-yard scoring hook-up. But Marino again brought the Dolphins right back, hitting Clayton with a 15-yard TD throw in a drive that was aided by a 35-yard Joe Carter run. The Pats also came right back, trimming the Dolphins lead to 30-24 on Eason's five-yard scoring strike to Derrick Ramsey. Moore's 15-yard touchdown reception made it 37-24 before Miami's A.J. Duhe forced a Tony Collins fumble (William Judson recovered) and five Woody Bennett runs eventually led to Pete Johnson's second touchdown of the game on a three-yard run.

GAME #9 MIAMI 38, BUFFALO 7

MIAMI, OCT. 28 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Mark Clayton's 106 reception yards and two touchdowns, defeated the Buffalo Bills 38-7 before 58,824 fans in the Orange Bowl. Miami scored its first touchdown midway through the first quarter on a seven-play, 80-yard drive. Dan Marino completions to Bruce Hardy (19 yards), Mark Duper (20 yards), and Tony Nathan (18 yards) set up a seven-yard TD pass to Mark Clayton. There was no more scoring in the opening period, but the Dolphins blitzed the Bills with 17 second quarter points. Mike Kozlowski's 20-yard punt return gave Miami possession on the Buffalo 47, and the Dolphins scored on a ten-yard toss from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson. The Dolphins increased their lead to 17-0 on Uwe von Schamann's 22-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 34-yard hook-up between Marino and Clayton. Following a missed Buffalo field goal attempt, Miami again scored, this time on a 65-yard reception by Clayton. After a scoreless third quarter, Miami scored on the second play of the fourth quarter on Woody Bennett's one-yard dive. Fulton Walker's 33-yard punt return had put the Dolphins in position for that touchdown. Miami got its final points on a 12-play, 68-yard drive engineered by quarterback Don Strock with fullback Pete Johnson scoring a one-yard TD. Six completions by backup Bills' QB Matt Kofler led to Buffalo's only points on a five-yard catch by Preston Dennard.

GAME #10 MIAMI 31, N.Y. JETS 17

EAST RUTHERFORD, NOV. 4 — The Miami Dolphins, behind Dan Marino's 422 yards passing and Mark Duper's 155 yards receiving, came back to defeat the New York Jets 31-17 before 72,655 fans in Giants Stadium. The Dolphins opened the scoring on their second possession as quarterback Marino connected with Nat Moore on a 37-yard touchdown pass. The Jets immediately tied the game as Freeman McNeil's 52-yard run was the big play that preceded Pat Ryan's 33-yard TD throw to Wesley Walker. The only scoring of the second quarter came on Pat Leahy's 32-yard field goal. The Jets first second half series led to a 25-yard Leahy field goal attempt, but it was blocked by Miami's William Judson. The Dolphins then moved 82 yards in 12 plays with the touchdown that put Miami ahead 14-10 coming on a three-yard run by ex-Jet Woody Bennett. New York took the lead back on their initial possession of the fourth quarter as McNeil scored on a six-yard run to cap a 72-yard drive. Tony Paige's 24-yard run on a fake punt led to that Jet TD. The second half continued to see-saw as Miami regained the lead for good on its next series when Marino connected with Mark Clayton for a 47-yard touchdown play. The Dolphins extended their lead to 24-17 on Uwe von Schamann's 30-yard field goal. A.J. Duhe's interception plus a 21-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Clayton) paved the way for Miami's final score on a two-yard run by Pete Johnson.

GAME #11 MIAMI 24, PHILADELPHIA 23

MIAMI, NOV. 11 — The Miami Dolphins, led by defensive end Doug Betters' block of an extra point attempt, beat the Philadelphia Eagles 24-23 before 70,227 fans in the Orange Bowl. Philadelphia became the first team this season to score points in a game before the Dolphins managed to get on the scoreboard. The Eagles scored touchdowns on their first two possessions to open up a 14-0 lead. An eight-play, 80-yard drive ended with a 19-yard throw from Ron Jaworski to Mike Quick. Their next scoring drive included ten consecutive running plays before Jaworski threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tony Woodruff. The Dolphins scored their first points with 1:12 remaining in the first half when quarterback Dan Marino connected with Tony Nathan on an 11-yard scoring play to cap a 76-yard march. The Eagles extended their lead to 17-7 on their initial series of the second half when PK Paul McFadden kicked a 45-yard field goal. The Dolphins immediately trimmed Philadelphia's lead to 17-14 when Woody Bennett scored his sixth touchdown of the season on a two-yard run. A clutch third down Marino completion to Jim Jensen (14 yards) and an 18-yarder to Clayton set up the score. The Eagles ensuing possession ended when Dolphin CB Paul Lankford intercepted a Jaworski pass to give Miami the ball at the Philly 26-yard line. Seven plays later, FB Pete Johnson scored on a one-yard run. The Dolphins increased their lead to 24-17 on Uwe von Schamann's 27-yard field goal. Philadelphia then launched a late drive that culminated when Jaworski and Mel Hoover hooked up on a 38-yard touchdown. However, McFadden's extra point attempt was blocked by Betters, Miami's 6-7 defensive end.

GAME #12 SAN DIEGO 34, MIAMI 28 (OT)

SAN DIEGO, NOV. 18 — The Miami Dolphins saw a 14-point fourth quarter lead disappear as they lost to the San Diego Chargers 34-28 in overtime before 53,041 fans in Jack Murphy Stadium. The loss, Miami's first regular season defeat in 371 days, snapped their winning streak at 16 games (one short of NFL record). The Dolphins had a chance to jump ahead early when Fulton Walker's 41-yard kickoff return and Mark Duper's 32-yard reception gave Miami the ball at the Charger two-yard line. However, a Woody Bennett fumble on the next play, plus a Dan Marino interception (on the San Diego seven) on the Dolphins' next series cost Miami two scoring opportunities. The Chargers then mounted a ten-play, 93-yard drive that ended with a three-yard TD pass from Dan Fouts to Eric Sievers. The Dolphins immediately tied it at 7-7 as Dan Marino led them on a nine-play, 78-yard march that featured a 12-yard TD toss to Mark Clayton. Miami scored again on its next possession on Pete Johnson's one-yard run that had been set up by Marino completions to Duper (19 yards) and Bruce Hardy (18 yards). San Diego came right back to make it 14-14 as a Fouts to Charlie Joiner four-yard TD culminated an 80-yard drive. The Dolphins then scored on their third consecutive series when Marino connected with Bennett for a four-yard touchdown. Miami extended its lead to 28-14 with the only points of the third quarter on Pete Johnson's three-yard run. Lyle Blackwood's interception and a 19-yard Marino to Duper pass had helped put Miami into position for the score. Early in the fourth quarter, the Chargers cut into Miami's lead with an 80-yard drive that ended when Fouts hit Joiner for a 19-yard touchdown. After forcing a Miami punt, San Diego embarked on a 19-play, 91-yard drive with Fouts hitting Sievers with a three-yard TD throw that tied the score at 28-28. With 44 seconds left to work with, Marino moved the Dolphins down to the Charger 26-yard line, but Uwe von Schamann hooked a 44-yard field goal attempt as regulation time expired. The Chargers won the overtime coin toss and drove 69 yards for a touchdown on that initial possession. Rookie RB Buford McGee scored the game-winner on a 25-yard run.

GAME #13 MIAMI 28, N.Y. JETS 17

MIAMI, NOV. 26 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's four touchdown passes, defeated the New York Jets 28-17 before 74,884 fans in the Orange Bowl. The win was Miami's seventh straight over the New Yorkers. A 78-yard New York drive that included a pair of Ken O'Brien to Mickey Shuler passes (29 yards) ended with O'Brien's 28-yard scoring throw to Freeman McNeil. The Dolphins struck back on their next possession as Marino led them on a seven-play, 71-yard drive that featured a five-yard Marino to Mark Clayton touchdown pass. The Jets then went ahead 10-7 on Pat Leahy's 30-yard field goal that had been set up by McNeil's 39-yard run. Miami ended the first half with a 14-10 advantage when Marino connected with Bruce Hardy for a one-yard touchdown. Key plays in the drive included two runs and a reception by Tony Nathan (total of 43 yards). The Dolphins opened the third quarter with a four-play, 80-yard march in just 73 seconds. A 17-yard pass from Marino to Hardy, Woody Bennett's 19-yard run, and a 21-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Clayton) paved the way for Marino's seven-yard TD toss to Dan Johnson. New York cut the Dolphin lead to 21-17 on its ensuing series on Tony Paige's one-yard run. Miami then closed out the scoring with a nine-play, 80-yard drive culminating in Marino's 12-yard touchdown pass to Hardy.

L.A. RAIDERS 45, MIAMI 34

MIAMI, DEC. 2 — The Miami Dolphins, despite four touchdown passes and a team record 470 yards passing by Dan Marino, lost a 45-34 decision to the Los Angeles Raiders before 71,222 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved 62 yards to the Los Angeles three yard line on their first possession, but a third down Marino pass was intercepted by Mike Haynes and returned 97 yards for a touchdown. Miami immediately tied the score on a 12-play, 72-yard drive that culminated in a four-yard Marino to Jimmy Cefalo TD throw. Early in the second quarter, a William Judson interception of a Marc Wilson pass (23 yard return) gave Miami possession on the Raider six. After an incomplete pass, Tony Nathan scored his first rushing touchdown of the season to put the Dolphins ahead 13-7 (PAT blocked by Sean Jones). The Raiders came right back to take a 14-13 lead when Cle Montgomery's 42-yard kickoff return set up Marcus Allen's 11-yard TD run. Later in the period, a pair of Todd Christensen catches (21, 12 yards) paved the way for Chris Bahr's 44-yard field goal that gave L.A. a 17-13 advantage. On their first series of the third quarter, the Raiders upped their lead to 24-13 on a seven-yard scoring pass from Wilson to TE Dave Casper. Miami later embarked on a 91-yard scoring march that ended with a 64-yard touchdown reception by Clayton. On their next series, the Dolphins took a 27-24 lead as Clayton again scored, this time on an 11-yard Marino pass. The five-play, 83-yard drive was bolstered by a 23-yard Woody Bennett run and a 26-yard screen pass to Nathan. Midway through the fourth period, Los Angeles struck quickly as Wilson connected with Dokie Williams for a 75-yard TD play. Miami's next series ended with another Haynes interception (54-yard return), and two plays later, Allen scored from six yards out. The Dolphins then cut their deficit to 38-34 as Marino completed eight passes in an 86-yard drive that ended with his nine-yard TD toss to Mark Duper. However, Miami's hope for a comeback fizzled when L.A.'s Allen ran 52 yards for his third touchdown on a crucial third down play.

GAME #15

MIAMI 35, INDIANAPOLIS 17

INDIANAPOLIS, DEC. 9 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 404 yards passing and Mark Clayton's 127 yards receiving (nine catches), defeated the Indianapolis Colts 35-17 before 60,411 fans in the Hoosier Dome. The Dolphin defense permitted just 27 yards of Colt offense in the second half to go with Marino's four touchdown passes. The Colts scored first midway through the first quarter when runs by Randy McMillan (12 yards) and Mike Pagel (14 yards) led to Pagel's five-yard scoring pass to Ray Butler. Miami came back on its very next possession to tie the game as Marino led the Dolphins on a ten-play, 85-yard drive with the touchdown coming on a two-yard Woody Bennett run. Three pass completions to Clayton (18, 11, 15 yards) set up the TD. Indianapolis went ahead 10-7 early in the second period on Raul Allegre's 52-yard field goal. The Colts stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 19-play, 95-yard march that consumed 8:58. A 21-yard Pagel to Tracy Porter pass preceded McMillan's six-yard TD run. The second half was all Miami as the Dolphins outscored the Colts 28-0. On their first series of the third quarter, the Dolphins moved 80 yards in just six plays with the touchdown coming on a two-yard Marino toss to Nat Moore. Miami took the lead for keeps on its next possession as Marino hook-ups with Tony Nathan (16 yards) and Jim Jensen (14 yards) led to his two -yard TD throw to Bruce Hardy. The Dolphins extended their advantage to 28-17 early in the fourth quarter as Moore's 18-yard reception helped lead to Jimmy Cefalo's 25-yard scoring catch. Miami closed out the scoring when Marino hit Indianapolis native Clayton with a seven-yard scoring pass.

GAME #16 MIAMI 28, DALLAS 21

MIAMI, DEC. 17 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's four touchdown passes and Mark Clayton's three TD receptions, defeated the Dallas Cowboys 28-21 before 74,139 fans in the Orange Bowl. After a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins broke out on top midway through the second period when Marino led them on an eight-play, 80-yard drive. The touchdown came on a 41-yard hook-up between Marino and Clayton. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 on the opening series of the second half with an 11-play, 81-yard march that culminated with a three-yard Marino to Bruce Hardy TD toss. The score had been set up by a 31-yard pass interference penalty (intended for Clayton). Later in the third quarter, Dallas scored on Timmy Newsome's one-yard run. The Cowboys tied the game at 14-14 in the final period when a Michael Downs interception gave Dallas possession at the Dolphin 21-yard line. Three plays later, Newsome scored again from four yards out. On Miami's next series, a 17-yard completion to Mark Duper preceded a 39-yard pass-and-run touchdown from Marino to Clayton. That was the first of three TDs in the games final three minutes. The Cowboys immediately evened the score at 21-21 when Tony Hill came up with a tipped pass and turned it into a 66-yard touchdown play. Two plays after the ensuing kickoff, Marino hit Clayton, who eluded Dallas DBs Downs and Ron Fellows, and scored on a 63-yard play to win the game.

Raiders Sink Dolphins With 82-Yard Bomb OAKLAND 21, MIAMI 14

OAKLAND, DEC. 27 — Quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud.

The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, had taken a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime.

Raider right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line.

The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphin kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

Dolphins Outlast Chiefs In Longest Game MIAMI 27, KANSAS CITY 24

KANSAS CITY, DEC. 25 — Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by thumping a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day.

The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation.

Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson made a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try.

Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Anderson, No-Names Stymie Colts MIAMI 21, BALTIMORE 0

MIAMI, JAN 2, 1972 — Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939.

Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a John Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads."

Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka.

The Colts hadn't been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphin 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI Cowboys Flatten Luckless Dolphins DALLAS 24, MIAMI 3

NEW ORLEANS, JAN. 16, 1972 — A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium.

Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times.

The Dolphins were frustrated all day: in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period.

Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in seven plays after kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

Late TD Drive Rescues Unbeaten Dolphins

MIAMI 20, CLEVELAND 14

MIAMI, DEC. 24 — On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

Morrall, the NFL's leading passer as he replaced injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns' 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the 8.

Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when linebacker Doug Swift intercepted quarterback Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20.

Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed, 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

Griese Comes Off Bench to Rally Win

MIAMI 21, PITTSBURGH 17

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 31 — Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather.

Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run to set up that TD.

Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play.

In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

Dolphins Achieve Perfection in 17th Win

MIAMI 14, WASHINGTON 7

LOS ANGELES, JAN. 14, 1973 — "This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries.

A record Super Bowl crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offsides penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles.

An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score.

Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

Stout Defense Cages Bengals

MIAMI 34, CINCINNATI 16

MIAMI, DEC. 23 — A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory.

Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted long field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin.

The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlman booted field goals for 46 and 12 yards — the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff — to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP Dolphins Grind Raiders With 266 Rushing MIAMI 27, OAKLAND 10

MIAMI, DEC. 30 — A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title.

Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead.

Then as the Raiders battled within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards culminating in a field goal and 40 yards ending in Csonka's third TD.

Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play.

Oakland had stopped Miami's 218-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII Dolphins Demolish Vikings MIAMI 24, MINNESOTA 7

HOUSTON, JAN. 13, 1974 — Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium.

There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge.

It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphin six-yard line.

A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked it to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents, 85-33, in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka gained a Super Bowl record 145 yards and was named MVP.

Dream of 'Triple Crown' Shattered

OAKLAND 28, MIAMI 26

OAKLAND, DEC. 21 — Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight yard pass that Clarence Davis wrested from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins.

Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining.

It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier, Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphin 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD.

The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC "WILD-CARD" PLAYOFF

Oilers Jolt Erring Dolphins

HOUSTON 17, MIAMI 9

MIAMI, DEC. 24 — The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage and, aided by five Dolphin turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC "wild-card" entries at the Orange Bowl.

Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half.

Dolphin quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnest Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oiler 10-yard line when the game was tied.

Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

Steelers Blitz Dolphins in First Quarter

PITTSBURGH 34, MIAMI 14

PITTSBURGH, DEC. 30 — Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steeler 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive.

The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone.

Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter.

Chargers Survive Dolphins' Comeback

SAN DIEGO 41, MIAMI 38

MIAMI, JAN. 2, 1982 — A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38, in overtime.

"The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers' quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL-record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions topped by Chargers' tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards.

Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33-of-53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphin 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked — a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime.

It was the only game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (First Round) Woodley Keys Dolphin Revenge MIAMI 28, NEW ENGLAND 13

Miami, Jan. 8, 1983—For the first time in 9 years, the Miami Dolphins won a play-off game — defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphin QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16-of-19 passes for 246 yards and two TD's. He was a perfect 8-for-8 in the second half. The Dolphins, now 8-2 including this playoff game and winners of four straight, had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974 when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl VIII. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter gaining back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TD's came on a pair of two-yard passes from David Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 43 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (Second Round) "Killer B's" Stymie Fouts and Co. MIAMI 34, SAN DIEGO 13

Miami, Jan. 16, 1983—The Dolphins, on their way to a five game victory roll, choked off the famed Charger offense and won 34-13. The Dolphin defense stopped the San Diego Chargers' offense with a total 247 yards — 203 yards below their league-leading average, while holding them scoreless in the second half. Dolphin defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards — their lowest output since last January's playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins' offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage. The Dolphins had the ball for 40:46; the Chargers for 19:14. Dolphins' QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TD's. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter, and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers' kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers' 23-yard line. Seven plays later Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins' rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' Brooks, but this time had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TD's, one on a 28-yard pass to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the Chargers' scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half, and Woodley scored on a two-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

Miami, Jan. 23, 1983 — For the third time in as many games the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season — two times during regular season and once in a playoff. On nine occasions since the leagues' merger, teams have met three times in a season — but no team has won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter, after the teams had slogged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII Redskins' Riggins Runs Past Miami WASHINGTON 27, MIAMI 17

Pasadena, Jan. 30, 1983—The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl. Before the second largest crowd for a Super Bowl — 103,667 fans — the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than ten minutes left on the playing clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 runs, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play — fourth and one from the Redskins' 43 with 10:01 to play — Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard Woodley to Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF Warner Keys Seahawk Upset SEATTLE 27, MIAMI 20

MIAMI, DEC. 31 — The Miami Dolphins saw 1983 and their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the semi-final round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphin rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant, with the extra point giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seahawk territory set Seattle up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard jaunt with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson three-pointer. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

Dolphins Atone For '83 Post-Season Loss

MIAMI 31, SEATTLE 10

MIAMI, DEC. 29 — The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphin 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawk's Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

Marino's 421 Yds., 4 TDs Pace Win

MIAMI 45, PITTSBURGH 28

MIAMI, JAN. 6 — The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers 45-28 in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the first half's final 2:52, first on a 41-yard reception by Mark Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards), and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown throw before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX 49ers' 537 Yards Buries Dolphins SAN FRANCISCO 38, MIAMI 16

PALO ALTO, JAN. 20 — The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play — Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on two field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphin deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play — 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

DOLPHINS 21-0 VS. 7 CLUBS IN REGULAR SEASON

The Miami Dolphins have built a perfect 22-0 regular season record against 7 clubs in the National Football League through the 1984 season.

Those teams which have never beaten Miami are Atlanta (0-4), Chicago (0-3), Detroit (0-2), Green Bay (0-3), New York Giants (0-1), St. Louis (0-5), and San Francisco (0-3).

Miami set an NFL record with 20 consecutive victories over Buffalo from 1970 through 1979. Entering 1985, the Dolphins have beaten New England 17 straight times at the Orange Bowl.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

RADIO

In 1985, the Miami Dolphins' radio network will consist of 30 stations (59 markets) with Miami's WIOD (AM-610) again serving as the flagship station. WIOD has been the originator of Dolphin broadcasts since the team's 1966 inception. Known throughout South Florida as "Someplace Special For Sports," WIOD's Dolphin coverage is among the most comprehensive in the NFL. The station begins its game day coverage two hours before kickoff with "The Orange Bowl Express" including player features, key matchups in the upcoming game, plus other pertinent information from around the NFL. Also included in the pre-game package is "The Don Shula Show" featuring a preview of the day's contest by the Dolphins' head coach. Following the game, "The Locker Room Show" keeps listeners up-to-date on all other games around the league and also includes interviews from both the Dolphin and opposing locker rooms with the key players from that day's game.

Handling the play-by-play for his 15th season will be the "Voice of the Dolphins," Rick Weaver. A seasoned broadcaster with nationally-known credentials, Weaver is a 10-time recipient of the Florida Sports-caster of the Year award. Joining Weaver in the broadcast booth will be color commentator Hank Goldberg while Henry Barrow patrols the Dolphin sideline giving listeners up-to-the-minute reports on the day's action.

WQBA

For the fourth consecutive season, the Dolphins' South Florida Latin fans will be able to follow the team's fortunes on WQBA. This season, the broadcasts will shift over to WQBA's AM station (1140).

Following three seasons as a color analyst, Rene Giraldo will assume the play-by-play chores in 1985. He will be assisted by veteran analyst Eduardo Lujan, who has served as the producer and color commentator on the Dolphins' Spanish broadcasts since their inception. Joining Giraldo and Lujan in the booth in '85 will be Roly Martin, who handled sideline commentary during home games last season.

PRE-SEASON TV

In 1985, WCIX-TV (Channel 6) enters its third season of association with the Miami Dolphins. Channel 6 will again televise the Dolphins' pre-season games to South Florida football fans. This year's package will consist of three games (the August 24 game will be nationally televised by NBC) and will kick off on Saturday, August 10 when the Dolphins host the Minnesota Vikings in the Orange Bowl. Another home game against the Buffalo Bills will follow on August 17 with the pre-season wrapping up with a contest against the Atlanta Falcons at Fulton County Stadium on Friday, August 30.

Handling the play-by-play for WCIX will be 28-year veteran sportscaster Jay Randolph. Randolph, who has been an NFL broadcaster for NBC for 17 years, is also the sports director for KSDK-TV in St. Louis. Joining Randolph will be former Dolphin superstar Bob Griese. The ex-Miami quarterback is the only player in Dolphin annals to have his jersey retired. Sideline reports will be expertly furnished by WCIX Sports Director Andy Leopold.

The WCIX schedule is listed below (all times EDT):

DATE	OPPONENT	AIR TIME
Sat., Aug. 10	Minnesota	*11:30 PM
Sat., Aug. 17	Buffalo	*11:30 PM
Fri., Aug. 30	at Atlanta	8:00 PM

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Media representatives who do not have press credentials for the entire season (but will be working for an accredited media outlet on an immediate deadline) may request them on a single-game basis. Telephone or written credential requests must be made at least three working days in advance to Chip Namias, Director of Publicity, Miami Dolphins, 4770 Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 1440, Miami, Florida 33137 (305-576-1000). Reserved credentials can be picked up at the Press Gate, located between Gates 9 and 10 at the Orange Bowl, on the day of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers with accredited media outlets on an immediate deadline may request credentials on a single-game basis from the Dolphins' Public Relations Department. Due to space limitations, it is not possible to issue credentials to freelance photographers. Field photographers are reminded to remain outside of the bench areas.

PRESS BOX: To get to the Orange Bowl press box, enter the Press Gate located between Gates 9 and 10. There are two press levels which are located on the third and fourth floors of the press box; all radio booths are now located on the third floor. Only credentials issued by the Miami Dolphins will be honored for admittance to the Orange Bowl.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms is governed by each individual team. Only media representatives with proper credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. No one will be admitted to the locker rooms prior to the game.

PARKING: Press parking at the Orange Bowl is very limited. All parking pass requests must be directed to Stadium Manager Walter Golby or to Assistant Manager Max Cruz, (305) 579-6971. Lot #1 (entrance N.W. 3rd Street) is the area utilized for media representatives.

TELEPHONES: Any media member desiring to have their own press box telephone must order it directly from Tanya Diaz, Southern Bell Special Services (lines) at (305) 883-2319, and from Rivers Demby, AT&T (instruments) at (305) 493-6365. Pool "Charge-a-Call" phones will be available.

COPY TRANSMISSION: Copy transmission is available at every Miami Dolphin home game. The transmission representative is Tim Lippman, 9320 S. Hollybrook, Pembroke Pines, Florida 33025, O-(305) 983-5600, H-(305) 432-7901.

FIELD ACCESS: Only working photographers, TV camera personnel, and club/stadium officials are permitted on the field during the game. Media members with press box passes are allowed on the field with five minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

PRACTICE: Regular season practice sessions are usually held at 2:00 PM Tuesday through Friday, and at 11:00 AM on Saturday (home game). Practices are normally closed to out-of-town media unless special permission is granted by the coaching staff. To request permission, or to arrange for lunchtime or post-practice interviews, please call the Dolphins Public Relations Department. Television crews are allowed to shoot the first ten minutes of practice. The team locker room is now open to the general media for 30 minutes Tuesday-Friday.

PRACTICE DIRECTIONS: The Dolphins practice at St. Thomas University (formerly Biscayne College) during both the pre-season and the regular season. To get to the North Miami location, take I-95 north to 826 West. Follow 826 West to the N.W. 27th Avenue exit. When taking the N.W. 27th Avenue exit ramp, proceed through the first traffic light (stay in right lane) to the second light and turn left (N.W. 32nd Avenue). The entrance to the University will be about 500 yards down on your right. Show the gate guard proper media identification and he will direct you to the Dolphin complex. The Dolphins maintain press facilities in a three-room trailer located adjacent to the practice field.

ADVANCING: Generally, the Dolphins request that the opposing team's public relations representative visit training camp on Thursday to coincide with the weekly media conference call.

THE DOLPHIN NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns — none of those other names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a thousand different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonderment for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joseph Robbie said in announcing the team name October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphin games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame — it ended in a scoreless tie.

THE ORANGE BOWL

As the Miami Dolphins enter their twentieth season of existence, so too do they enter their twentieth season of residency in the Orange Bowl. With a present capacity of 75,206, the Orange Bowl has been the site of many great sporting events including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, and championship boxing matches.

The Orange Bowl was originally built for $325,000 in 1937 as a project of the Works Progress Administration. With an initial seating capacity of 25,000, bleacher seat expansion in 1945 added 12,000 seats. Three years later, double-decking of the north and south stands increased the Bowl's capacity to 60,000. In 1949, the sale of $50 non-interest bonds enabled the addition of 7,500 seats to boost the stadium's total to 67,500. The decking of the west end zone in 1968 brought the Orange Bowl to its current capacity of just over 75,000, although temporary east end zone bleachers between 1971-76 brought the total seating to 80,045.

The Orange Bowl's playing field consists of Prescription Athletic Turf which was installed in 1976. The PAT replaced the Poly-Turf that had been in the stadium for the previous six seasons.
